Rovang Heads Church Committee

Noble Rovang was appointed chairman of a ways and means committee at a board meeting of Pioneer Methodist church held on Monday evening. The re-painting and re-decorating of both the inside and the outside of the church is to be undertaken during the summer with the ways and means committee taking charge of the arrangements.

James Leonard was named chairman of the board for the ensuing year, while John Montelius will act as assistant chairman, and Mrs. Walter Oerding will continue her work as secretary.

Mr. Leonard and Rev. Lawrence Guderian were given the authority to select committees to act in the following functions: building, young people's activities, adult activities, policy, and ushers.

It was decided to discontinue evening services at the church during the summer months.

Petitions from the Oregon council of churches with reference to local option on alcoholic beverages, and dog racing were read.

Day Camp Plans Being Made

Day Camp preparations are underway for Coquille Girl Scouts, Brownie Scouts and all other girls, ages 8 to 16 years, for the dates July 13, 14, 15 and 20, 21, 22.

Mrs. Virgil Beaudette, camp director, met with counselors on Tuesday afternoon, June 8, at the Community building.

Mrs. Beaudette and Mrs. Frank Gould reported on the meeting, which they attended recently in Klamath Falls.

All women who will act as camp counselors or assist at day camp are to have a meeting and cook their lunch at Patterson Grove on Tuesday, June 15, if it is fair weather. If it rains, the meeting will be the following Friday, June 18. Beginning at 10:30 a. m. the women will practice outdoor cookery and various other activities for use at camp. All women who plan to attend the luncheon who were not at the meeting of June 8th, contact Mrs. Beaudette, Mrs. Swinney or Mrs. Stuller for information about food plans.

License Rejected On Watson House

License to operate the former Watson rooming house as such was rejected Monday night by the city council upon hearing the report of the city fire marshal, Craig Perrott. City Judge and Recorder Hode Caughell was requested to inform the operator that as of the present date usage of the dwelling for roomers would have to be abandoned until it was made to comply with city laws.

New Film Marked By Acting Ability Of Youthful Star

Local audiences will be treated to a story filled with appealing charm and entertainment when Republic's outstanding drama, "Driftwood," comes to the Liberty theatre Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Cast in the mold of such famed pictures of human simplicity as "Mr. Deeds Goes To Town," "The Human Comedy" and "You Can't Take It With You," "Driftwood" is the unforgettable story of an eight-year old little girl in a confusing world of grown-ups.

Playing the lead role is "Jenny" is Natalie Wood, an amazing youngster who is said to give the part so sensitive a portrayal that older actors view her performance with unfeigned admiration.

"Driftwood" is a picture that bids fair to be long remembered for the honesty of its story and portrayal.

Vanport Sufferers Sent Clothing

A shipment of clothing and canned goods to be sent to the Vanport area was packed at a meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church at a meeting held on Thursday at the church parlors.

Mrs. James Richmond read letters from Mrs. J. R. Chitambar, a former missionary in India, who regretted being unable to come to Coquille at present due to illness, and from Miss Ellen H. Sufferin of Sienny, Fukien, China, telling of her experiences.

The ladies voted to contribute toward the support of a missionary to Japan for a three-year term, and received a letter of thanks from the American Bible society for a donation given to them.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. A. N. Gould, Mrs. James Richmond, Mrs. Louis Fugelson, Mrs. Leland Peterson, Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. R. B. Knife, Mrs. Lloyd Leatherman, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. George Fromm, Mrs. Miranda Way, Mrs. Hazel Jackson, Mrs. C. C. McCurdy, Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. V. R. McCurdy, Mrs. W. P. Laws, Mrs. Blanche Tice and Mrs. Hattie Shelley.

Sewer Asked

A sewer on Willard between 4th and 6th was requested by a group Monday night. The city council will have the new city engineer study the plan and make up preliminary costs.

Water Bill Halved

Water bill of Sam Fuels of over $18.00 for one month was cut in half by order of the city council Monday night. Fuels had averaged around $2.00 until this one month when it went to the $18.00 mark. Fuels had protested the high charge.

Relief Corps Puts Flags On Graves

A meeting of the Douglas MacArthur Relief Corps, No. 56, was held on June 2 in the Labor Temple.

It was reported that the ladies had put over sixty flags on graves of G. A. R. soldiers and Relief Corps members on Memorial day.

Alyce Peterson, No. 1 flag bearer, who has been in Fort Ord for some time was present for the meeting.

Potluck dinner was served at noon and during the morning a number of the ladies sewed.

The next meeting will be held on June 16.
