Sees Flood Damage

Evan Albarn saw the extent of the flood damage along the Columbia river and in Portland last week-end on his return from La Grande where he was a delegate to the state Lions club convention. He said that there were many detours on the highway, and while in Portland he accompanied a Portland police officer out to see the Vanport damage.

He said he feels that the disaster should never have occurred in such full extent if the people in Portland had had a proper respect for the terrific power of water. Mr. Albarn has seen floods in the Mississippi and other eastern points.

Coos Bay Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bissett and son, Lee, visited in Coos Bay on Sunday.

Red Nickels Here On July Tenth

Red Nickels and his Five Pennies who wowed 4th of July dancers last year, will be in Coquille again this summer. But not on the 4th of July. They will be here July 10th, Hode Caughell, local dance impresario, said today.
