Past N. G.'s Preside Over Rebekah Meeting

The Past Noble Grands presided at the meeting of the Rebekah lodge held on Tuesday evening. Taking the officers' chairs were Ruth Beyers, noble grand; Elvira Carmichle, vice grand; Myrtle Benham, secretary; Helen Parent, warder; Iola Moore, conductor; Carolyn Johnson, inside guard; Cathryn Cook, outer guard; Pansy Ross, R. S. N. G.; Beulah Neely, L. S. N. G.; Hattie Shelley, R. S. V. G.; Kathryn Terrie, L. S. V. G.; Florabelle Boober, chaplain; Merle Kellenberger, past noble grand; Birdie Skeels, musician. Applications for membership were received from Margaret Mullin and Anna Lee Neely. The convention to be held on July 9 in North Bend was discussed. Lillian Clark was appointed to take charge of transportation arrangements.

Plans were made for the installation of officers to be held July 13, 1948.

The following committees were appointed: refreshments, Etta MacPherson; Ruby Tuel, Carolyn Johnson, Beulah Neely, Christine Smith and volunteers; decorations, Carolyn Johnson; hospitality, Lillian Clark, Elvira Carmichle, Loeta Marcum; gifts, Florabelle Boober, Ruth Beyers, Marion Lawrence.

Following the regular meeting the Past Noble Grands were special guests at a social hour. The dining room table was attractively decorated, using the Independence Day theme. The numbered place cards were decorated with small fire crackers. Winners of the various contests were Florabelle Boober, Ann Dungey, Everett Wolgamott, Joyce Eldredge, Helen Parent and Anna Morrison.

Picnic Celebrates 80th Birthday

Mrs. Myra Ball celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary with a picnic dinner at Walla Walla, Washington. The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Young.

Mrs. Ball had the pleasure of having all her children present on this occasion. Mrs. Pearl Blachly, Mrs. Edna Webster, Mrs. Christie Thrift of Coquille, Mrs. Lola Woods and W. A. Ball.

Mrs. Ball has seven grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren.

At the birthday dinner, Mrs. Ball received many lovely and useful gifts. A beautiful four-tiered birthday cake was made and decorated by a granddaughter, Mrs. Ned Porter, of Dayton.

Those attending were Mrs. Pearl Blachly, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Webster, of Fomeroy, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thrift, Coquille, Ore.; Mrs. B. D. Woods, Rippland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ball and Joanne, Vacaville, California; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Young, Donna, Ruth and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. James Holman, Arthur, Dorothy and Judy of Walla Walla, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Porter, Joe and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Grville Webster and Jerry of Dayton, Wash.; Diane Porter of La Grande, Ore.; Mrs. Rose Atkinson of Pendleton. Only two grandchildren and their families were unable to attend, namely Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ralph, Mike, Judy and Jane of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Thrift, Richard and Judy of Coquille.

Brockway-Conlee Vows Exchanged

Solemnized at Port Orford Community church at three o'clock on Friday afternoon, June 25, was the marriage of Venita Jay Brockway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brockway of Coquille, and Keith W. Conlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlee of Coquille. Rev. Nelson Miller, formerly of Coquille, and a friend of the family, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose a street-length dress of rose which she wore with grey accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and members of the two families.

Mr. and Mrs. Conlee will reside at their new home, "Five Pines," at Arago.

Juvenile Grange, No. 714, Meets

Juvenile Grange, No. 714, met June 26 with David Morton, overseer, in master's chair. Master was aite.

Mrs. McNair, matron, was absent as she is on a vacation. Mrs. Morton, helper, took her place.

We have decided what kind of float we are going to enter in the 4th of July parade and when and where we are going to decorate it. The Subordinate Grange had a picture show for lecture hour. It was an army picture.

Pictures were enjoyed by everyone.

We have not finished our scrapbook as we have been doing so many other things.
