Double Wedding Unites Coquille People

A double wedding of interest to Coquille was performed on Friday, July 2, at Newport. Doris A. Barnett of Coquille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dahl of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and sister of Mrs. Fred Lorenz of Coquille, became the bride of Harold Gates, son of Mrs. Oscar Gates of Wilbur, Oregon, and Miss Margarette Carlson of Coquille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carlson of Bandon exchanged nuptial vows with Claude Lemon, son of Mrs. Catharine Lemon of Coos Bay. Rev. G. E. Williams, pastor of Newport Christian church, officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. Barnett chose a street-length dress of flowered jersey, fuchsia on white. Her lace hat and gloves were white and her corsage was of white gardenias and Martha Washington blooms.

Miss Carlson wore a smartly fashioned dress of white linen with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Gates will make their home in Roseburg while Mr. and Mrs. Lemon will make their home in Coquille.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Gates held a position on the staff at Lorenz Department store, Coquille, while Mrs. Lemon is secretary at Coquille high school.

From Roseburg—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson of Roseburg were in town for the holiday visiting Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Mary Fuller.

From Coos Bay—Mrs. Dorothy Garnier and two children of Coos Bay spent the week-end with Mrs. Garnier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Draper Thompson.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH HOOTON, who were married at Coquille Christian Church recently. Before her marriage Mrs. Hooton was Dorothea C. Lindberg, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Lindberg of Port Orford. (Coquille Studio)

Miss Lindberg Becomes Bride Of Kenneth Hooton In June Wedding

Dorothea C. Lindberg, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Lindberg of Port Orford, became the bride of Kenneth Hooton, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hooton of Coquille, at a ceremony solemnized in the Coquille Christian church on Friday, June 25. Rev. Earl Soward and Rev. Jim Kinsey officiated at the ceremony which was performed against a background of greenery, pale pink roses, calla lilies and Canterbury bells.

The bride, given in marriage by G. Jepson Turner of Portland, chose a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a long train. Her veil was finger-tip length and her bouquet was of Doctor Van Fleet roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Leo Richmond, of Port Orford, sister of the bride, was attired in a gown of peach lace and wore her corsage on a wrist band.

Mrs. Marvin Floyd of Norway, sister of the groom, and Miss Norma Miller of Albany, a college roommate of the bride, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Floyd wore yellow and Miss Miller's gown was blue. They carried wrist band corsages.

The candlelighters were Miss Shirley McKenzie of Port Orford, cousin of the bride, and Miss Velma Nichols of San Diego, California, a classmate of the bride, who wore gowns of pink and yellow.

Delbert Troxell of Medford was best man and the ushers were Vern Eldredge and Walt McKinney of Coquille.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Frank Byers of Coos Bay, and the two soloists were Mrs. Jim Kinsey of Garibaldi who sang "Because" and Miss Martha Hendricks of Yamhill who sang "O Promise Me."

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Assisting as servers were Mrs. Alda Nosler, Mrs. Elaine Gething, Mrs. Leota Marcum and Mrs. Ann Dungey. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Donald Hensley of Port Orford, a sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooton left on a honeymoon trip to Crater Lake, via Grants Pass and the Oregon Caves.

The groom is a graduate of Coquille high school and served in the United States navy during the war. The bride has been a student at Northwest Christian college, Eugene.

Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. George Huther and two sons of Cloverdale, Oregon, were visitors in Coquille at the week-end. Mrs. Huther is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Fuller. She also visited her two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Stevens and Mrs. P. M. Norton.

Myrtle Club Is Guest Of Mannelin's

Mrs. Albert Mannelin entertained members of the Myrtle club at a Thursday afternoon affair when those present were Mrs. Kittle Ness, Mrs. Earl Standley, Mrs. Joe Cook, Mrs. Roscoe Anderson, Mrs. Josh Rubie and three special guests, Mrs. Helen Anderson and Miss Helen and Merle Anderson of Santa Monica.

Lutheran Church Scene Of Wedding

Bethany Lutheran church of Portland was the scene of a double ring ceremony on June 27, at 2:30 p. m. when Miss Antonette Svendsen became the bride of Donald Watson Kramer, son of Mrs. Laura Kramer of Portland, Oregon, formerly of Coquille.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svendsen, was given in marriage by her father. She wore an ivory satin gown with full train and a finger-tip veil of imported French net caught in a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetpeas centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. George Brigham was matron of honor. She wore a pale blue crepe gown with pink mitts and a cascade bouquet of pink sweet peas.

The bride's other attendants were Miss Patricia Dickey and Miss Rose Marie Mason who wore pink crepe gowns with matching mitts and carried cascade bouquets of orchid sweet peas.

The flower girl was tiny Kathleen Parypa, dressed in a blue ruffled or gandy dress with matching hat and mitts, and carrying a colonial nosegay. Her little brother, Ronald Parypa, acted as ring bearer.

Sam O. Kramer, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were James P. Kramer, another brother, and Edling Svendsen, brother of the bride.

A garden reception was held immediately after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple are both residents of Portland, the bride having attended Oregon State college and the groom is attending Vanport Extension college, majoring in engineering.

The groom is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tuttle of Coquille.
