MR. AND MRS. LYNN HONNOLD of Coquille, who were married at North Bend, on July 3. Mrs. Honnold was formerly Miss Pauline Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of North Bend.

Anderson-Honnold Marriage Solemnized

Miss Pauline Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson Jr. became the bride of Lynn Honnold, Coquille, July 3, at 10 p. m. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at North Bend.

Rev. Enoch Sandeen of the American Lutheran church officiated at the ceremony which took place under an archway with a background of tall candelabras holding white tapers and tall baskets of waternias, gladioli and maidenhair fern.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of aqua crepe with a hat of matching aqua tulle and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds tied with a cascade of satin ribbon.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Willard Spooner, a schoolmate of the bride, wore a dusty rose crepe dress with a white hat and matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Burton Anderson, twin brother of the bride, was best man.

Mrs. Lester Hill sang two numbers,

"Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Bernita Anderson who also played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A reception was held in the home following the ceremony. The bride's table, centered by the three-tiered cake, was decorated with roses and crystal candle holders, and the rooms were decorated with white gladioli, sweet peas and fern.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Grover Smith, Mrs. Burton Anderson, Mrs. J. Anderson Jr., and Mrs. George Mangold of Portland, cousin of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of the North Bend high school and was owner of the Sacchi confectionery in North Bend for many years. The groom, who is from Montana, served in World War II, and is now in the meat business in Coquille.

After a brief wedding trip to Portland the couple will make their home in Coquille.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue suit and hat with grey accessories.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Mangold, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Spooner, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smith, Mr. and Mrs.
