COQUILLE, OREGON.

JULY 22, 1948.

News from Northern Curry County

By Helen Fain
Box 804, Langlois, Ore.

The Sixes Grange will meet Saturday, July 24. A report will be heard from Mrs. Pauline Anderson who is the head of the committee arranging for the choosing of a girl from Sixes to attend the County fair, and compete for queen of the fair. The Juvenile grange will also meet at the same time.

The Home Economics club of the Sixes Grange met at the home of Mrs. Ad Niemann in the Hamlet, Port Orford last Thursday afternoon. There were 14 present, with sewing done for the grange. The project of buying a new piano for the grange hall was reported as complete, with the piano paid for this month. The ladies are now starting on another, to finish this year. The next meeting will be Thursday, August 19.

The regular monthly meeting for the Langlois school board was held last Monday evening at the grade school instead of the previous Monday being a holiday. The board is able to announce some changes in the building being made during the summer. All of the class rooms are to be painted, and the desks and floors sanded and refinished. A well is to be dug and a complete new water system installed. Andy Anderson is the new custodian, hired to replace Mrs. Essie Crew, who resigned in June.

The Langlois Sportsmans club will hold a picnic on Sunday, July 25, at the Floras Creek bridge, for all members and friends. Potluck, and everyone bring their own service. Coffee will be furnished. Eat at 1 p. m. There will be games, stunts and races. The men will do the work.

Don't forget the Winter Garden program which is to be held at the Sixes grange hall on Monday August 2 at 8 p. m. This meeting has been arranged by Mrs. Aldene Roberts, home demonstration agent, and Robert Knox, county agent, and is of special interest to those interested in planting a winter garden. Ralph Clark, horticulture specialist, Oregon State college, will be present to answer any questions. There will also be a display of insecticides and equipment for applying them, selective weed control materials, and fertilizers.

A card party was held at Thursday evening at the Sixes grange hall. Those attending from Langlois were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum and Joe Fosse.

Quite a few of the Sixes Grange members and their friends attended the dance at the hall last Saturday evening. The square dance and old time dances were danced, and those present enjoyed a lovely evening. These dances are in charge of Mrs. Eula Mastropolito and Kenneth Thompson. Refreshments were served later in the evening. It was decided by those present to have another dance on Saturday August 7, at 9 p. m.

Feathered People Set Up Housekeeping

A family of three feathered folk caused a minor traffic jam on Coquille's busy main street on Saturday. A family of swallows has made its home in the eaves above the windows of the F. C. Penney store, and not a mile concerned with the interest on-lookers, the mother bird went about the business of feeding the three hungry mouths, which opened wide each time she approached.
