Rockrise-Paulson Rites Solemnized In San Francisco

Margaret Lund Paulson and George Thomas Rockrise were married Saturday June 12 in a double ring ceremony at the Swedenborgian church in San Francisco.

Given in marriage by her father, John E. Paulson of Portland, the bride wore an ankle length dress of Chinese brocade, which was designed by the famous Swedish couturier, Inga-Britt. In a delicate pink, scattered with pastel designs, the gown had a low scooped neckline, softly draped, and a fully gathered skirt.

The snug fitting bodice dipped far below the waistline in front and back, and the sleeves, cut along dolman lines, were short and tied with crisp bows. Her coronet of white orchids centered with pink matched the bouvardia bordered orchids in her bouquet. Gloves and shoes were pink to match the dress.

Margaret was attended by Mrs. William Cameron, formerly Alison Stilwell, daughter of Mrs. Joseph W. Stilwell and the late General Stilwell. Mrs. Cameron's dress of deep blue pure silk slipper satin was similar to the bride's with a fitted bodice and a fully gathered skirt.

Flower girl was Miss Margaret Ann Mauney, daughter of Mrs. Guy Mauney, the bride's sister, and Mr. Mauney of this city. Margaret Ann's dress, which was of delicate blue, had a long full skirt with a double row of ruffles cascading down the back. Both Margaret and Mrs. Cameron wore coronets of forget-me-nots and pink roses and carried matching old-fashioned bouquets.

William Watson acted as best man.

At the reception which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Church, Mrs. Guy Mauney served the wedding cake and Marcia and Karen Mauney were in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the couple left for Santa Barbara for a two weeks honeymoon. They are now making their home on Telegraph Hill in San Francisco.

The bride, who grew up in this city, was an active member of the Pirate Club I. She attended the Coquille High school and later graduated from Castilleja in Palo Alto. Attending the University of Oregon one year she was a member of Pi Beta Phi fraternity. She later received her B. A. degree at Stanford University. Following a year's study in New York City at the American Academy of Dramatic Art, she played in summer at the American Academy of Dramatic Art, and road companies. Currently, she is the Northern California fashion editor for the Californian magazine.

Son of Mrs. Thomas D. Rockrise and the late Mr. Rockrise, the groom is a graduate of Syracuse University where he was affiliated with the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Later he received a Master of Science degree in architecture from Columbia on a university fellowship. During the war he worked as an architect for the army and navy in Panama. Before coming to San Francisco he was on the planning commission of the United Nations Headquarters in New York City. A member of the American Institute of Architecture and the Architectural League of New York, Mr. Rockrise is now associated with the Thomas D. Church firm in San Francisco.

Miss Van Fleet Becomes Bride Of Waymon Rutledge

Miss Winnifred Van Fleet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Fleet, of Corvallis, Oregon, became the bride of Waymon Rutledge, in a candlelight service, Saturday, July 24th, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening. The ceremony was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wolgamott, beneath a green archway, with a background of white lattice-work, interwoven with fern. Only members of the family were present.

Rev. Howard S. May of the Coquille Tabernacle officiated at the wedding.

The bride wore traditional white, in lace and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweetpeas, tied with long white satin ribbon.

The matron of honor, Mrs.

Shirley Wolgamott, the bride's sister, wore a floor-length dress of pale yellow, with a corsage of Talisman roses.

Ralph Wolgamott, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Bessie Marney, aunt of the bride, where the wedding cake was served to guests.

The bride is a graduate of Coquille high school, and was a member of the First National Bank of Portland staff in Coquille, before leaving to attend Glad Tidings Bible Institute in San Francisco. The groom, of Sacramento, California, served in World War II as sergeant in the Army Signal Corps, and for the past year has also attended Glad Tidings Bible Institute.

Shower Given In Honor of Mrs. Mattoon

Mrs. Delbert Driskell and Mrs. Bob Harris were co-hostesses when they entertained at a baby shower for Mrs. Ray Mattoon.

The guests arrived for eight o'clock dessert, and after the honored guest had opened her gifts, games were played.

An arrangement of pink tapers intertwined with white flowers graced the tables, and blue booties filled with flowers further added to the decorative scheme.

Attending were Mrs. Ray Mattoon, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Howard Moy, Mrs. Bob Bryan, Mrs. Lynn Perrott, Mrs. Joe Sayre, Mrs. Wasley Laird, Mrs. Tom Thrift, Mrs. Karl Alpine, Mrs. Dorothy Crowley, Mrs. Alton Clausen, Mrs. Bill Walker, Mrs. Don Smith and Mrs. Fred Marinneau.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Verne Oederkirk, Jr., Mrs. John Burg and Mrs. Evelyn Crowley.

Organ Numbers Featured On Program

Special program numbers presented before members of Coquille grange when they met in the Union hall on Friday evening were two organ selections by Leah Norris, a reading by Mrs. Grace McBeth and two novelty vocal numbers by Miss Janet Stone.

Four members from Bridge grange, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram, Mrs. Marian Brown and Mrs. Nona Boyde attended the meeting and outlined their plan for raising funds for the addition of a Juvenile hall to their present building.

Accepted as honorary members of the Juvenile grange at Co-
