Thirty People Attend Lutheran Picnic

About 30 defied the cool weather and attended the Lutheran church picnic at Norway Grove last Sunday. Following informal services the people enjoyed a very delicious picnic lunch. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson, Rev. and Mrs. A. K. Bethmann, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. R. Diaz, Mrs. Helen Scheuenpflug, Mrs. William Ziedrich, Mrs. Lawrence Glock, Mrs. Carl Meyer and Dan De Rose.

The following children were present: Alvis, Marlin LaVerne and Marlene Glock, Woodrow Meyer, Doris and Robert Schencktenpflug, Sandra and Dwa Jane Erickson, Donald Taylor, Karen and Phillip Hagen, LaDean Nancy and David Cunningham.

Donald Taylor was in charge of the program of races and games.

Coquille Man Takes Maryland Bride

L13 Tom Boots, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Boots of Coquille and Miss Lucille Ciopryna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ciopryna of Lexington Park, Maryland, were united in marriage July 24 at the Naval Air station chapel in Patuxent River, Maryland.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white silk dress, pearls and a yellow rose corsage.

Miss Ruth Winefett served as maid of honor and William T. Motley was best man.

Following the ceremony the couple took a short trip to Washington, D. C., and then into Virginia for a sight-seeing tour.

Tom is stationed in the Patuxent River naval air station in Maryland.

W. S. C. S. Meets At Church Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in the church Thursday, August 5th in regular business meeting. Mrs. Esther Taylor led the study of the "Prayers of the Bible" group singing with Minnie Laws at the piano, and Mrs. Fugelson conducted the business meeting.

A letter was read from the Jessie Lee Home in Alaska, thanking the society for the last box of goods sent to them. The secretary of supplies also reported as having sent them a box and cash this week. She also reported sending six boxes to one of the missions in China and money to different home institutions.

The secretary read a letter from Austria thanking the society for a box sent there.

Plans were made to go to the George Taylor cottage at Croft Lake on August 19th. Cars will leave the church at 10:00 a. m.

Mrs. Georgia Richmond was appointed to attend the Woman's Society of Christian Service summer school held at Camp McGruder, August 8 to 13.

Ladies Plan Missionary Group

The ladies of the Coquille Lutheran Mission (American Lutheran Church) are to organize a Women's Missionary society in the near future.

Grange Picnic

A good time was had by all Sunday August 8 when the Coquille Grange gave a picnic at Floras Creek. Among the fifty attending were two guests: Mrs. Russell Stillwell of Fairview and Mrs. Ella Strang of Coquille.

Mrs. Brandon Home From Trip

Mrs. Laura C. Brandon returned last Friday from a trip to Kansas City, where she visited her sister and family.

Her sister is Mrs. Bessie A. Stanley.

Other places in Kansas visited were Salina, Lincoln, Atchison and Council Grove.

All places visited have just finished harvesting the largest wheat crop of many years and the corn fields are as bountiful as the wheat.

Plenty of rain and the warm sunshine makes the state the most beautiful Mrs. Brandon has ever seen.

Luncheon Slated For Pioneer Meet

A luncheon at noon will be one of the features of the Coos-Curry Pioneer and Historical association meeting Saturday, Aug. 14th at the Coquille Community building. It was announced today. This will be the first meeting conducted by President Henry A. Schroeder of Myrtle Point.

The meeting will start at 10 a. m. in the Boy Scout room and continue until 2 p. m.

Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hale and children of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunsaker. Mrs. Hale is Mr. Hunsaker's sister. They plan to make their home on the West Coast.

Grange To Meet

The Coquille Grange will meet Friday, August 13th at the Labor Temple. They are to have a booth at the Coos County Fair which will be held in Myrtle Point August 19, 20, 21 and 22. Those members who plan on exhibiting their fancy work, canned fruit, or any unperishable foods are requested to bring their material with them to the meeting Friday evening.

Lion Directors Entertained

Members of the Lions club board of directors and new officers were guests of the Lloyd Claver's last Friday evening at a swimming party and dinner.

The business meeting of the board of directors was held later in the evening.

New Members Initiated

The Royal Neighbors initiated four new members at their meeting Wednesday July 21 at the Coquille Community building: Hester Menning, Molly Wersh, Betty Menning and James Newton.

Ann Montgomery of Coos Bay, Emma Martindal of Coalinga, California and Mattie McGuffin, of Wilmington, Calif., were out-of-town visitors at this meeting.

In charge of the refreshments of the evening were Blanch Shepard and Bell Belloni.

It was reported that the Royal Neighbor picnic, which took place at the Fred True home Sunday August 8 was successful.

Approximately fifty people were present including members, guests and children.
