

Notes From the Realm of Clubs, Society, Lodges and Churches....

Past N. G.'s Meet At Stevens' Home

The Past Noble Grands' club met at the home of Mrs. Lois Stevens Friday evening, Oct. 1st, for the regular monthly get-together.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Elvira Carmichael. Various witty responses were given by the members at roll call. Several interesting packages were received, which with many more, will be sent to the individual members of the I.O.O.F. Home in Portland at Christmas.

Following the meeting, Bingo was enjoyed with numerous "white elephants" as prizes. Mrs. Agnes Schroeder and Mrs. Ruth Beyers were the lucky winners of "sweet" door prizes.

Trays filled with delicious salad, cheese crackers, grapes, coffee and individual candy cups were served by the hostess at a late hour.

Enjoying the occasion were Mesdames Birdie Skeels, Hattie Shelley, Earl Schroeder, J. P. Beyers, R. E. Boober, George Terrio, Charles Carmichael, H. H. Hunt, Fanny Ross and Miss Ida Oerding.

In November the club will meet with Mrs. Beyers for a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner.

Betrothal Told Of Coquille Man

Alford F. W. Cramer of The Dalles announces the engagement of his daughter, Ruth, to Maurice Woodford Williams of Denver, Colorado, son of Mrs. Jane Woodford Williams of Coquille.

Miss Cramer is a graduate of Oregon State college. She has made her home in Portland for several years. Mr. Williams attended the Roger Babson Institute in Boston and is now associated with United Air Lines, in Denver. The wedding is planned for early November in Portland after which the newlyweds plan to live in Denver.

Married At Bandon
