B. P. W. Holds Open House

Close to forty members, prospective members and guests attended the "open house" meeting of the Coquille Business and Professional Women's club held Monday evening in the junior auditorium of the Community building.

An interesting program of games and contests had been arranged by the Legislative committee, headed by Mrs. Georgiana Vaughan, and the Courtesy committee, headed by Miss Bess Maury. Particularly pertinent were two quiz contests on the subject of the forthcoming election. Winners were Mrs. J. S. Barton and Miss Inez Rover.

Two pleasing vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Roy Barton, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins. The Hallowe'en motif was used in the decorative scheme, and refreshments typical of Hallowe'en were served.

Assisting Mrs. Vaughan and Miss Maury with the program arrangements were Mrs. Louis Holimon, Mrs. Walter Oerding, Mrs. J. J. Geaney, Mrs. James Brady, Mrs. Hazel Hanna, Mrs. Loren Simmons and Mrs. Helen Lundy.

Husbands Entertained

Chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used in decorating the junior auditorium of the Community building when a potluck dinner was given on Tuesday evening for members of the American Legion Auxiliary and their husbands.

Guest speaker for the evening was Clarence Barton, who chose as the topic of his address, "Communism."

Mrs. Martha Mulkey Purdy was named Woman-of-the-Month for October by president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Ronald Burr.

Plans were discussed for raising funds for Christmas gifts for "Yank That Gave," and an invitation from the local Legion post asking the auxiliary members to join them for one meeting a month was accepted.

Chairman of the program committee for the evening was Mrs. Phil Alborn while the refreshment chairman was Mrs. Evan Alborn.

4-H Notes 15 Counts

A good start is very important. We hope all 4-H clubs will get off to a good start this year by organizing early. The best time to do this is at the last meeting of the current year.

Officers can be elected and a program of work made out for the coming year. Many clubs may not wish to begin holding meetings until January, however, with plans already made there will be no trouble getting members together. Early organization is a good idea for all clubs, including canning. It is particularly important for livestock clubs whose members keep records all year.

Some of the clubs already organized and working on next year's program are the following: Camp cookery led by Dean VanLeuven of Bandon. Cooking II led by Mrs. A. F. Johnston of Eastside. The Busy Homemakers led by Mrs. Merle Thomason of Eastside. Woodworking led by Wayne Young of Bunker Hill. Busy Bee's Homemaking led by Mrs. Van James of Eastside. Sewing II and III led by Mrs. Wayne Young of Bunker Hill. Busy Baker's Cooking club led by Mrs. Lou Ewan of Allegany.

Cooking I and II led by Mrs. Elin Backman of Millington. Allegany Health club led by Mrs. Lou Ewan of Allegany. Health club led by Mrs. Rosabel Brown of Sikkum.

All clubs should have a name. This is a big help in writing news stories and distinguishes one club from the other in the same project. A name adds interest to club activities and gives members that extra pride in their organization.

Club leaders who act as Junior leaders are important in developing a better club program. One of the county's outstanding members, Dean VanLeuven, has branched out as a leader this year. Betty Sell, Riverton, began as a Junior leader last year with a cooking and a clothing club. (Completion of Projects)

Oct. 31 marks the close of the 1948 4-H club year. On this date all record books must be completed. All books must be sent to the county extension office so as to arrive not later than Nov. 5. All record books will be checked and scored before they are sent to the State Club office for final approval on Nov. 15.
