Menning Home Scene of Meeting

The members of the Eagles Auxiliary sewing club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Ralph Menning when a potluck luncheon was held on Wednesday. During the afternoon the ladies sewed for the bazaar which will be held early in December. Plans were made for a pinocle party to be held on October 20, proceeds from which will be used to purchase sewing material.

The winner of the door prize was Mrs. Ralph Menning.

Those present were Mrs. Clarence Hurrell, Mrs. Earl Dalrymple, Mrs. Frank DeCosta, Mrs. Constance Powder, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Mrs. Noel Benham, Mrs. Bud Menning, Miss Edna Robison, Mrs. Annie Bradshaw, Mrs. Van Spores and Mrs. Maria Pratt.

The next sewing meeting will be held at the home of Edna Robison at Broadbent on Wednesday, October 27.

Job's Daughters Hold Banquet

Mrs. Felicia Ehlert, Grand Guardian of Oregon, was feted on Monday evening, Oct. 11, at a banquet held in the Coquille hotel. The affair, arranged by Coquille Job's Daughters, was also given in honor of fifteen candidates who were initiated later in the evening.

Present at the initiation ceremonies were some seventy-five relatives and friends of those participating. Candidates initiated were Jane Gould, Marcia Mauney, Nancy Perrott, Sherrill Hatcher, Helen Taylor, Geraldine Smith, Louise Johnson, Martha Banta, Diana Schroeder, Joyce Mitchell, Le Anna Powder, Nana Foss, Frances Ann Fromm, Leola Barklow and Colleen Brinkley.

Hallowe'en Party To Be Given

On Friday evening at the regular meeting of the Coquille Ladies Eagles Auxiliary plans were made for a Hallowe'en party to be held at the Eagles hall on Friday evening, October 29, for members of the auxiliary and Eagles lodge. The affair is to be a masquerade, and committees were appointed to arrange special program features.

Eagles Auxiliary Meets Wednesday

Officers of the Coquille Ladies Eagles Auxiliary were entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilson Dalrymple. Present at the gathering were Mrs. Martin Kincheloe, Mrs. Van Spores, Mrs. Earl Dalrymple, Mrs. Clarence Hurrell, Mrs. Ralph Menning, Mrs. Tom Nesbitt, Mrs. Bud Menning, Mrs. Frank DeCosta and Mrs. Wilson Dalrymple.

Star Honors Bethel Queen

Queen Joyce Taylor, Bethel No. 18, Job's Daughters, was honored at a special event arranged by Coquille Eastern Star members. The affair was held in the Masonic hall on Thursday evening. Miss Taylor was escorted to the east, introduced and presented with a corsage.

Following the introduction of the queen, thirty-eight of the Daughters were presented with corsages, as were Mrs. Harold Gould, Bethel Guardian, and members of the guardian council. The Courtesy Girls of the Eastern Star gave a degree in honor of the visitors.

A reception was given in the banquet room following the ceremony. The table, centered with a large pumpkin filled with fruit, was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and tapers. Responsible for the arrangements was Mrs. E. A. Walker.

Lessing Speaks To Women's Group

"Women Through the Ages," was the topic of an address given on Friday evening by Father Robert Lessing of St. James' Episcopal church, at a banquet arranged by the Coquille Business and Professional Women's club. The banquet, held in the Coquille hotel, climaxed the program arranged to commemorate National Business Women's week.

The banquet tables were lovely with centerpieces of chrysanthemums and ivy, and the head table was further enhanced by white tapers in silver candelabra. Mrs. Edna Kern was in charge of the floral arrangement.

Miss Arlene Robertson, president of the Coquille Business and Professional Women's club, acted as chairman and welcomed the guests, mentioning especially visitors present from the newly formed Business and Professional Women's club of Myrtle Point, namely Georgia Mae Miller, Lucy Barker, Beulah Brown and Florence Miller.

Mrs. Georgia Miller spoke briefly, thanking the Coquille club members for their assistance in the formation of the Myrtle Point organization.

The closing feature of the evening's program was group singing led by Mrs. Ruth Beyers. The piano accompaniment was given by Miss Inez Rover.

Crusade Held At Church

Professor Lawrence Bixler of Northwest Christian college, Eugene, Mrs. William Siefke and Mrs. Edna Burke of Eugene, and Leighton Deshields of Dallas were the speakers at an all-day crusade council meeting held in the Coquille Christian church on Thursday.

The four speakers dealt with four different phases of Christian work under the headings, "Home and Family Life," "Christian Education," "Missionary Work" and "Bible School Work."

Dinner Meeting Held By 90 and 9

Representatives from North Bend, Myrtle Point and Coquille attended a dinner meeting of the Coos county Ninety-and-Nine men's group held at the Coquille Christian church on Monday evening.

Reports from the Ninety-and-Nine state convention were heard, and Rev. Earl Soward, the speaker of the evening, addressed the gathering, choosing as his topic, "The Tide of Evangelism Will Return." Two vocal solos were rendered by Rev. Roy Harrison.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Litzenberger left at the weekend on a vacation trip to Eastern Oregon. En route they stayed over in Portland to see the football game.
