Kennett Lawrence Takes Bride in Ceremony At The Dalles

In the First Congregational Church at The Dalles, Oregon, on October 15th, Miss Helen Louise Calmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Calmer of that city, became the bride of Kennett P. Lawrence, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Lawrence of Coquille.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willard B. Hall, in a setting of white gladioli and candlelight. Mrs. Robert Clements lighted the tapers, and Miss Kathleen Whitten, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Wilhelm at the organ, sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian style gown of ivory satin and carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. Her finger-tip length veil was held in place with a beaded tiara.

Mrs. John Tasnady was matron of honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Miss June Owens was bridesmaid in pink taffeta and, carrying yellow carnations, both wore coronets of stephanotis and their gowns were designed similarly to the bride's. Best man for his brother was Gordon Lawrence of Corvallis. Ushers were John Tasnady and Frank Beeson, both of Eugene.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the Isabella Gray room of the church. The serving table was decorated with bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums and white tapers. Mrs. Henry Tasnady and Mrs. John Rhodes poured while Mrs. James McCowan, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Clements served.

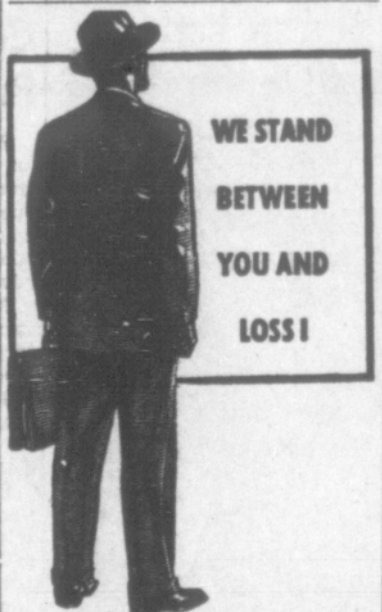

Mrs. Lawrence is a graduate of The Dalles high school and The Dalles Hospital of Nursing. Kennett is a graduate of the University of Oregon and served for three years in the Army Air corps.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Lawrence, Sr., went out to The Dalles, for the wedding and spent several days there.

Slim Chance For Lower Prices Of Women's Clothing

If you've been putting off buying that new suit or dress awaiting lower prices, the cards are stacked against you.

Unless there is a sudden change in the overall economic scene, it is likely that most clothing will remain high during the coming winter. That is the opinion of Miss Lucy Lane, O.S.C. extension specialist in clothing and textiles.

Some relief is in sight, however, for prices on such clothing items as men's shirts, pajamas and underwear as well as women's hosiery, she believes. Demand for men's overcoats is down and the trade reports some carry-over of stock from last year.

The clothing specialist reports that some manufacturers are reducing the amount of fabric, quality of construction and trimmings to meet consumer resistance to rising prices in familiar price lines. Despite this hidden price boost, Miss Lane declares that fabric and workmanship in women's clothing, for instance, is the best now since 1941.
