IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR COOS COUNTY

JEANNE A. FITZHENRY, Plaintiff, vs.

GORDON A. FITZHENRY, Defendant.

Summons

TO: GORDON A. FITZHENRY, the above-named defendant. IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above-entitled suit on or before Thursday, the 20th day of January, 1949, said date being after the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons; and if you fail to so appear and answer said Complaint or otherwise plead thereto, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her Complaint, to-wit:

For a decree dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable. The grounds on which said relief is based in said complaint, is cruel and inhuman treatment.

This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Coquille Valley Sentinel, pursuant to an order of the Honorable Dal M. King, Judge of the above-entitled court, made, dated and entered on the 21st day of December, 1948, and which order requires that the date of the first publication of said Summons shall be the 23rd day of December, 1948, the date of the last publication thereof being the 20th day of January, 1949.

Officials On "Wings of the Navy" Writer Confers With Navy HOLLYWOOD—John Latimer, Paramount writer, left recently for the East to continue work on the screenplay of "Wings of the Navy," a story about jet pilots which has been in preparation for an early start with the Navy's full cooperation.

Latimer will spend some time in Washington where Robert Fellows, will produce the big-scale film, previously made extensive production plans with government and Navy officials. The film will be directed by John Farrow, giving it the same producer-director team which so successfully produced Paramount's "Beyond Glory," which has a West Point background.
