

Old Scrapbooks Displayed At Meeting

A display of old scrapbooks, dating back to 1926, were shown at a meeting of the Coquille Business and Professional Women held in the junior auditorium of the Community building on Monday evening.

A review of past accomplishments and activities of the club, prepared by Mrs. Inez Chase, was read by Mrs. Laura Brandon.

An outstanding feature of the program was a showing of clay figures, molded by a fourteen-year-old boy, Lonnie Kellenberger. The figures made by the use of the boy's hands, a razor blade and a toothpick, were cleverly fashioned to represent East Indians, and various pioneer characters. The showing was arranged by Miss Inez Rover, music and arts chairman.

During the business period, plans for the Southwestern Oregon district B. P. W. conference which will be held in Coquille in March were discussed.

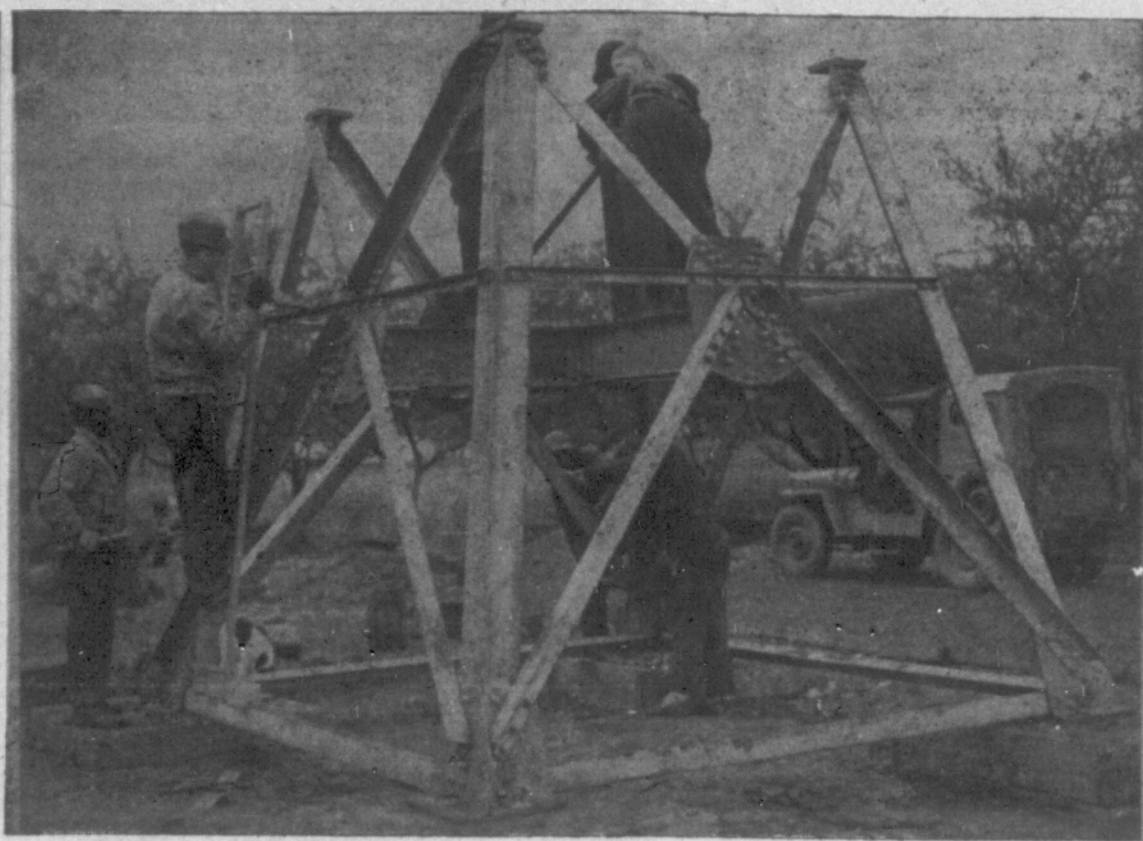

A report on the "CARE" packages sent to Europe during recent months was heard.

The members voted to discontinue the B. P. W. shelf at the Coquille Public library. In future the books, donated by the club, will be distributed throughout the library according to classification.

Dessert was served at the close of the meeting, the hostesses being Mrs. Helen Lundquist and Mrs. Octavia McCue.

New Boy Born Same Day As Radio Goes On

Engineer Ralph Brown wasn't around Sunday when the Coquille radio station went on the air. He was busy in Portland pacing the hospital as his contribution to the new things of life—a bouncing baby boy weighing eight and a half pounds—gave out his first broadcast. While in Coquille the first squeals of KWRO were being heard as it entered the world, too.

Letter to the Editor

January 6, 1949
Coquille Sentinel: President Truman's state of the union message should give encouragement to not only working people but all progressive right-thinking Americans. In it he gave emphasis to the need for the Congress to enact into law the much long-overdue social and economic legislation demanded by the people in the November election.

The President's program which includes: higher minimum wages, a national health and welfare program, greater educational facilities and opportunities, conservation of natural resources, extension of public power, reduction of unwarranted high prices, more extensive and lower cost housing, strengthening of unwarranted high prices, more extensive and lower cost housing, strengthening of anti-trust laws to give small business assurances against strangulation by monopolies, and repeal of the union-busting Taft-Hartley Law—all these are part of the National CIO program. These are the issues which our organization, the International Woodworkers of America, has long pointed out must be enacted if our economy is to survive and the people are to enjoy the prosperity to which they are justly entitled.

We cannot sit idly back and expect to find this urgently needed legislative program enacted into law without our citizens giving individually and collectively through community organizations their material support.

The special privileged and selfish groups are constantly busy exerting too much influence and pressure upon our Congressmen. It's time that the little people back home follow up by supporting our President with a reminder to our Congressmen and Senators that we expect their wholehearted cooperation in enacting the Pres-
