The Sitkum Health club members gave several good demonstrations at the Mother's Tea last week. Among the topics were: treating a person who has fainted, vaccinations, taking water samples, and the bones of the body. A lot of work was involved on the part of members and their leader, Mrs. Rosabel Brown.

The Brewster Valley Dairy Club was able to take part in the program, thanks to the leader, Charles Southmayd. He hauled the calves to the school grounds, where the members did some practice judging.

Just a few days left to get that chat club organized. May 1 is the deadline. Your summer school application must be in by that date also.

The Haynes Inlet Dairy club make a practice of having several tours each year. They visit each member's home and look over each project. Their first tour is scheduled for April 23.

It's a long time until record books must be turned in but it's always a good time to check and see that your book is up to date. If you want a really good record book, don't wait until a week before the end of the club year.

Do any of you 4-H'ers want to raise pheasants? Let us know if you're interested. This opportunity is given through the cooperation of the Oregon state commission. Club members will be paid one dollar for each bird raised to condition for release at the age of 16 weeks.

At Fairview

The shearing of Angora goats is really something to watch. With the help of their dog to keep the goats corralled Howard Leatherman and his helper have been busy the past week, shearing from 350 to 400 goats which were on the range all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lasswell of Coquille were visitors to Mrs. M. Varney's home Sunday. Mrs. Varney has been taking care of Mrs. Gentry's children, Mike and Lewana, while Mr. and Mrs. Gentry took a trip north.

Mrs. E. Hatcher has been ill with a cold. Her daughter, Betty Hatcher who is living in Coquille spent the Easter holidays with her folks here in Fairview.

Mr. J. P. Hollenbeck took advantage of the nice weather and has his garden planted so while the rest of us are busy plowing and planting, the Hollenbeck's are enjoying some good week-end fishing. Understand they got quite a catch of catfish at Fat Elk creek Sunday.

Mrs. L. Frye went to Gold Beach Friday for Homemakers' Day for Curry county. She also attended the county committee meeting in Coquille last Monday. Cliff Henry of N.S.P. spent the Easter holidays in Washington visiting his family. His daughter and her two children from Denver, Colorado, joined him for a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Baccus, formerly of Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Schneider last week. The Baccus's are now living at Middle creek.
