Mrs. Belle Laird was taken to the Mast hospital at Myrtle Point on Thursday evening of last week, suffering with pneumonia. She is still there at this writing and improving every day. She is hoping to return home soon.

Mrs. Mildred Benham, daughter of Mrs. Laird, from Roseburg, is staying at her home and taking care of the post office.

Deloy Keeler is the first victim of measles in the valley. As most of the school children have already had the disease it is not likely to have much effect on the school.

Oran Keeler, Deloy's father, has also been ill. Last week he had a throat infection that necessitated his being hospitalized at Myrtle Point for a couple of days. He has improved greatly and is feeling much better again.

Lila Mae and Muri Laird were down to visit their father, Ivan Laird, and grandmother, Belle Laird, over the Easter vacation. Lila Mae is attending Behnke-Walker Business college in Portland since her graduation from high school in February.

Mrs. Charles Southmayd and Joanne visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Storm at Langlois on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Britton, Margaret, Joan and Bruce, spent home of, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gloom near Coquille.

Mrs. Rex Brown received word that her little nephew, Freddy McLain, reported in February to be suffering with leukemia, had passed away on April 8th. The little fellow did not live the three months the doctor had given him as a maximum.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Rasmussen and children spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Rasmussen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson of Myrtle Point.

Ted Brown was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Brown on Sunday.

Betty and Perry Koozts spent the week-end with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Torbergson of North Bend. Saturday evening they were joined by Ellen Strode. All returned to Sitkum on Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Hansen spent the week-end at Sandy visiting her parents and her daughter, Beverly.

Mrs. Elmer Stode, Florence, Mildred and Ellen Strode, Sharon and Collet Sapp went to Coos Bay to shop on Saturday. Ellen went on to North Bend to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Torbergson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Earl attended Easter services in Coos Bay Sunday, then visited at the home of Elmer's brother, Edward Wilson, at North Bend the rest of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and Janet and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Ross and Sharon Vee were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stinson, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Halley Laird of Coquille were visitors in the valley Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Alford were Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Alford.

On Easter Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins entertained their entire family except one daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Avis Mitchell and Artha of Portland. Those present were Mrs. Arla Davis, Tommy, Nick and Sorja Ann, of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubbie, John, Marcia and Dietra, of Fairview; Mr. and Mrs. Lendon Jenkins and Douglas, of Myrtle Point, and Jon and Don Munson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kirsch left Saturday for a week's vacation east of the mountains. They went first to Prineville to visit Mrs. Kirsch's parents and then to Moffett to visit the parents of Mr. Kirsch. They expect to return on Monday.

Mrs. Oda Scott, the new upper grade teacher, spent the week-end at her home near Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirk of Empire have moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk for the summer. Mr. Kirk is on the fire patrol of this area.

Mrs. W. A. Nickason, Mrs. Elmer Strode and Mrs. Elmer Wilson attended Pollyanna club at McKinley last Thursday.
