Griffin had the honor of receiving the highest grade of any other applicant and is home awaiting call to report for duty.

Ernie Woodring was operated on for appendicitis at the Mast hospital Saturday. Ernie is progressing nicely and will be home shortly.

Miss Florence Rushing was a Powers visitor Friday. Florence attended high school here last year and will graduate from the Coos Bay high school this year.

Mrs. Jane Burch and Mrs. Rachel Rolfe were able to come home from the hospital this week.

Mrs. Gladys Mayfield has accepted a position as second cook at the Russell Train logging camp, with Mrs. Agnes Peace.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Rouw and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Breuer, all old time Powerites but now of Portland were visiting their respective relatives over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Widmark and son, John, of Coquille, spent Friday at the home of Mr. Widmark's sister, Mrs. Elwin Frye.

Mrs. Elwin Frye and Mrs. James Adamack were Tuesday shoppers in Roseburg.

Mrs. William Perry left for Portland Tuesday to visit her husband who is in Portland in the Good Samaritan hospital. Mr. Perry was injured the 29th of October on the C. B. L. Co. train at Cedar Point.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ragghianti at Keizer hospital in North Bend, April 18th. Mrs. Martha Johnson returned to her work at the Roxey Fountain after a ten day absence. —h.l.

Powers Briefs . . .

Thure Davidson, Martha Schyberg, Ole Moody and wife, Klutch Ross and wife were fishing Sunday at Coos Bay. Several flounder and other fish were taken.

Bob Richards is in the Mast hospital at Myrtle Point and is not getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson and family of Eugene were weekend guests at the Paul Barton home. The Johnsons are breaking a new Nash Ambassador, and plan a trip to the east during the summer.

Some parties have been unlocking the cable car, which is used to cross the river in North Powers, and have been using it to joy ride across the river. This cable car is the property of the U. S. Geological Survey and there is a maximum fine of $500.00, in addition to a jail sentence, for those caught using this car. When you fool with Uncle Sam, you'll learn to your sorrow that the way of the transgressor is hard.

Joe Doyle has taken a job with Stanley Bros. He is dumping logs at the pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ross left on Friday for Alpine, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Don Burch. They returned on Monday.

Loy Reed has his Unit Power crane back in Powers. He has been working up on Eden ridge for Coos Bay lumber. Howard Stratton is the crane operator.

Lon Hollenbeck has been very busy in his service station. The logging season is now on in full swing which means more work for Lon. They are also working on the Coldiron cat. It is a complete overhaul job, even down to new paint.

Forest Service

Elwin Frye and Curtis Townsend have been doing camp-ground work up the South Fork at Daphne Grove Forest camp and others. This work will be completed this week. Following this telephone maintenance will be started.

Ranger Stickney and Ranger Paul Talich of Agness have been accompanying Gene Slocum over to Dora and Sitkum for field work on the national forest lands in that vicinity. National Forest lands in Townships 28, 29, and 30 were transferred to the jurisdiction of the Powers R. S. staff last year. Fire protection is given to the lands by the Coos Fire Patrol association, but other administration is handled by the Siskiyou National Forest.

Health Clubbers Present Program

The 4-H Health club, under the leadership of Mrs. Rex Brown, and the 4-H Dairy club, under the leadership of Charles Southmayd, joined to give an exemplification of the value of 4-H club work for their parents last Friday afternoon.

They held an open meeting with Colette Sapp as president and Betty Kooztz as secretary. After the regular formal opening which includes an opening song, yells and the 4-H pledge, roll call and the minutes of the last meeting, the old and new business was handled.

The program was as follows: opening songs by both the upper and lower grades, followed by five well given demonstrations, namely: "How to take a water sample" by Joanne Southmayd and Colette Sapp; "How to give a smallpox vaccination," by Don Munson and Ellen Strode; "How to take care of a person who has fainted," by Donna Rasmussen, Claudia Lambert and Tommy Brown; "The bone structure," Mildred Strode, Betty Kooztz, Perry Kooztz and Charlene Mullen; "How to judge calves" by Earl Wilson, Edward Rasmussen, Donna Jean Rasmussen and Joanne Southmayd. Earl Wilson gave a talk on the history and activity of the Dairy club.

This was followed by a group of numbers given for entertainment as follows: a poem, "Nine Little School Kids," was given by Claudia Lambert, Margaret Britton, Betty Cummings, Douglas Sapp, David Parker, Tommy Brown, Margaret Rasmussen, Joan Britton and Donna Rasmussen; a reading by Donna Brown; a 4-H club song by the lower grades; an Easter reading by Don Munson and Betty Kooztz; a piano selection by Charlene Mullen; a song, "Tricky April" by the upper grades; readings by Florence Strode and Stephen Sapp, and an accordion number by Florence Strode.

Mr. Kenneth Beeson next gave a talk on the necessity for parent cooperation to make 4-H truly successful and explained the new policy for receiving 4-H pins. He presented four year cards to Florence and Mildred Strode, a 5-year pin to Ellen Strode and two-year cards to Sharon and Colette Sapp.

Other boys and girls who would have been eligible for cards and pins under the new policy had already received them under the old.

Light refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Southmayd, Mrs. Elmer Wilson, Mrs. W. A. Nickason, Mrs. Oda Scott, Mrs. Elmer Strode, Mrs. Clem Rasmussen and Nancy, Mrs. Elwin Alford and Fulton, Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Mrs. Harold Mullen and Claude, Mr. Beeson, Mrs. Brown and the school children.
