Job's Daughters Are Guests of Star At Meeting Held Tuesday Evening

Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 15, were special guests of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., at its regular meeting Thursday night, May 12th.

Mrs. Ada Moore, Vice Grand Guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters, and Mrs. Peg Gould, Guardian of Bethel No. 15, were escorted to the East and given corsages.

Following the meeting, thirty-two of the Daughters were escorted into the room by the Conductress and Associate Conductress. The Honored Queen, Beverly Davis, was escorted to the East and given a lovely corsage; the other Daughters were introduced and given small corsages in the traditional Bethel colors.

As part of the program, Mrs. R. E. Boober gave a humorous reading and an original poem especially for Job's Daughters. Speed Anderson, the fourteen-year old pianist from Langlois played several snappy numbers, including an original musical skit. After a social hour, ice cream, home-made cookies, punch and coffee were served in the banquet
