

Fairview Extension Unit Meets For Family Laws Discussion At Stillwell's

Members of the Fairview Extension unit met at Mrs. R. H. Stillwell's home Wednesday, May 4th, at 10:30 a. m. for a discussion on Family Laws given by Mrs. E. Winkels, county agent.

Those present were Mesdames I. Frye, F. Stock, R. Hill, K. Stratton, J. P. Hollenbeck, J. Nickelson, W. Harris, A. Thommen, E. Hatcher, G. Baldwin, C. Hill and E. Hubble with Mrs. R. H. Stillwell as hostess.

The members of the unit wish to take this opportunity to thank all the ladies of Fairview for the wonderful cooperation received in making the Fairview Extension unit dance a success.

Mrs. R. H. Stillwell was awarded first prize for her effort in selling tickets.

The members presented the retiring chairman, Mrs. I. Frye, with a cutglass sugar and creamer in appreciation of her hard work for the past year.

Mrs. E. Hubble announced that those children interested in a Junior Grange, ages 5 to 14, are eligible.

A potluck lunch was served and Family Laws.

Mrs. Ella Winkels gave a brief talk on what the home buyer should observe from a legal standpoint.

The following Friday, May 6th, the unit met with the McKinley Extension unit for the installation of officers of both units at the McKinley Grange hall at 10:30 a. m. The McKinley Extension unit had for their project, "Flower Arrangement," which was very fitting for the occasion.

Those present for Fairview unit were Mesdames I. Frye, F. Stock, R. Hill, E. Hatcher, J. P. Nickelson, J. Hollenbeck, W. Harris and R. H. Stillwell.

The McKinley unit members made corsages for the members installed as officers for both units for next year. Each one had different flowers and each was very beautiful. The varieties of flowers are too numerous to mention and displays were very colorful and attractive.

The members each brought something for a potluck lunch beginning with their first or last initial which, indeed, turned out a variety of food.

Mrs. F. Howard, past chairman of McKinley Extension unit, did the honor of installing the new officers. Those installed were Mrs. R. Hill, chairman; Mrs. F. Stock, vice chairman; Mrs. J. P. Nickelson, treasurer and secretary of the Fairview unit; Mrs. M. Pointer, chairman; Mrs. C. Churchill, vice chairman; Mrs. H. H. Hall, treasurer and secretary, for McKinley unit.

At Sitkum

(Held over from Last Week)

The Sitkum school had a delightful skating party at the school gymnasium Friday evening. When the children got tired skating, cookies and punch were served. The children of the Sitkum school are unusually fortunate in that the school owns and maintains skates for each child. Skating is their noon hour recreation during the bad weather all winter.

Parents who turned out for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyman, Mrs. Glenn Cummings, Mrs. Jack Parker, Mrs. Charles Southmayd, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Rasmussen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clough Haynes of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mullen, Charlene and baby, Claude, took Mrs. Mullen's mother, Mrs. Oscar Durrell, and drove to Roseburg on Saturday to visit with Mrs. Mullen's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Mead. On Sunday they made the loop homeward—driving up to Springfield, Eugene, Florence, Coos Bay, Coquille, then on home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Rasmussen and family spent Mother's day at the home of Mrs. Rasmussen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Earl attended church in Myrtle Point Sunday, then spent the rest of the day with Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Annie Lett of Myrtle Point.

There were numerous fishermen in the valley Sunday but we heard of no limit catches.

Rex Brown went to the Rogue fishing over the week-end but his big one got away.

Ivan Laird went to Portland via Western Air Lines Friday afternoon to spend Mother's Day with Mrs. Laird. He returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Rex Brown, Donna and Tommy and Mrs. Isabelle Shone were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Brown Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Strode, Ellen, Mildred and Florence, Colette and Sharon Sapp, Mrs. Isabelle Shone, Mrs. Rex Brown, Donna and Tommy from Sitkum, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oberman and Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller attended on Saturday evening the celebration of the eighth anniversary of the founding of the McKinley Juvenile grange. A delightful dinner was served with the program in progress during the dinner.

The Juveniles told of their beginning and early struggle and their advancement and achievement as they have gone along. Achievement awards were presented to Ellen Strode and Ellen and Larry Howard for posters they had made. Past Master's pins were presented to James Churchill and Marvin Brown by the Juvenile Grange Master, William Howard. Mrs. Hilda Brown, matron of the Juveniles, presented charter members pins to James Churchill, Marvin Brown, Ellen and Mildred Strode. For entertainment Mildred, Florence and Ellen Strode and Sharon and Colette Sapp, accompanied by the piano by Donna Brown, sang "Alice Blue Gown."

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Laird, Calvin and Alan, and Carl Laird of Coos Bay were dinner guests of Mrs. Belle Laird and Mrs. Mildred Benham on Sunday.

Friends of Mrs. Belle Laird will be glad to know that she is up and around again and feeling quite well. She is very thin but seems to be doing very well.

Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, Jon and Don Munson spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Jenkins' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubble of Fairview. Jon and Don were all set to do some big fishing.

Mrs. Carl Laird was in a Portland hospital over Mother's Day, recovering from an operation. She is getting along very well and expects to be home again before long. Carl, who drives for Greyhound, had to be at Coos Bay over the day so spent it with his mother, Mrs. Belle Laird.

Mrs. Oda Scott spent the week-end at her home at Bandon.
