Pioneer Church Scene of Wedding Sat.

Miss Norma Dell Lockwood became the bride of Vernon Mansfield Murdoch II Saturday evening at seven-thirty o'clock in a lovely candlelight ceremony in the old and historic Methodist church at Tennile.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lockwood and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sibold of Coquille, was given in marriage by her father and was beautiful in a light pink suit with navy blue sweetheart hat, white veil and white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of gardenias tied with white satin ribbons.

Doris Raines was the bride's attendant and Eddie Dwight was best man. The bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Murdoch I, of Van Nuys, California.

Leading the procession were the candlelighters, Miss Phyllis Croy and Miss DeElva Rae Ward of Coquille, cousins of the bride. Rev. W. W. Appleyard read the ceremony. The wedding marches and other music were furnished by Mrs. Elmer Boyer. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vance served as ushers.

The church was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Elmer Boyer with flowers furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Godfrey.

Relatives and friends from Sweet Home, Coquille, Happy Valley, Dillard and Tennile filled the little church to witness the first wedding to be held there.

A reception was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lockwood, paternal grandparents of the bride. The couple will make their home at Tennile.
