

SUNDAY EVENING AT EMMANUEL BAPTIST Church promises to be unusual in many ways. On that occasion the Bob Jones University Musical Ensemble, representing what has been called "The World's Most Unusual University," will conduct a special service. The group presents a program which is unusual and different, yet appealing and inspirational. Included on the program are many of the fine old hymns of the church.

REPRESENTING OERDING IN BANDON OFFICE

William K. Burrell has opened a real estate and insurance office in Bandon and will represent George E. Oerding, Coquille realtor, there. Also opening a tax accounting office recently in that city was William Johnson, former internal revenue department deputy and Myrtle Point accountant, who has opened his office.
