Rebekahs Initiate

A formal initiation ceremony was held Tuesday evening at the I.O.O.F. hall when Mary Alice Thieson was received into Mamie Rebekah lodge. Symbolic drills were presented by the degree team.

It was decided that an initiation meeting would be held on September 13, and every two months thereafter.

A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Helen Larson of Salem a former Coquille resident.

On the refreshment committee for the evening were Olive Lockwood, Doris Smith and Dorothy Noble.

Members are requested to bring a small sack lunch to the next lodge meeting.

FAMILY REUNION ENJOYED

A reunion in Turlock, California, is being enjoyed this week by Mrs. LeRoy Swinney, Janet and Bobby. They are visiting with Mrs. Swinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Tway, and her sister, Mrs. Paul Swanson. They will drive home via San Francisco later this week.

Mrs. Burton W. Dunn, became the bride of John Brockett Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Alexander of San Francisco, Calif. The Rev. Charles Scott Neville officiated at the four o'clock ceremony on Sunday, August 14.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Dunn. She wore a gown of white satin and lace made en-train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a headdress of tulle trimmed with seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a white orchid on her prayerbook.

Miss Patricia McKenna, of Pomona, California, was maid of honor and Mrs. C. Ogden Bailey of Corvallis was matron of honor.

Other attendants were Miss Zelta Wieman of Portland, and Miss Gwen Elrod, Coquille. Their dresses were fashioned after the bride's and were of orchid and apple green taffeta. They wore matching hats and carried arm bouquets of white gladioli.

Master Richard Dunn dressed in a white suit was ring bearer.

Best man was Alexander Peterson, Jr., of Portland, and ushers were Wallace Staats, Tacoma, Wash.; Wesley Coyner, Redmond; Bob Dunn, Corvallis, and Jerry Cole and Fred Zwahlen of Portland.

At the reception following the ceremony at the Delta Zeta House, Mrs. James O. Lamb, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Adelaide Lake poured. Mrs. Alexander, Jr.,

Garden Club Prize List Corrected

Corrections in the prize winners list for the recent Coquille Flower show were announced at the Coquille Garden club meeting last week as follows: Josh Ruble of Coquille, first prize in the Wineberry entry; and Ray Bone of Coos Bay, first, second and third prize for group gladiolas, third prize for basket gladiolas, and second prize for single gladiolas.

The group heard a report on the Men's Flower show at Coos Bay, and discussed their own recent show.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Noble Rovang, Mrs. Myrtle Clausen, A. N. Gould and Mrs. Robert O. Bailey. The meeting was held at Mrs. Bailey's home.

Hansens Guests At Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hansen, who left this week for McMinnville, were honored at a party given at the Cedar Room of the Coquille hotel on Friday evening. The party was arranged by members of the Coquille West Coast telephone company staff, who presented both Mr. and Mrs. Hansen with parting gifts.

Picnic Honors Charles Hansen's

A potluck picnic supper was given on Monday evening at Patterson's Grove by members of the West Coast Telephone Telephone company staff. Honored at the outdoor party were Mrs. Mary McGilvery, who was celebrating her birthday anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hansen, members of the staff who are being transferred to McMinnville.

Miss Donna June Rankin Becomes Bride Of Mr. James Torrance Love Tuesday At High Noon At St. James' Church

St. James' Episcopal Church, Coquille, was the setting for the wedding at High Noon Tuesday, August 16, of Miss Donna June Rankin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John DeLoss Rankin of Coquille, and Mr. James Torrance Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson Love, of Everett, Washington. Father Robert Lessing officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisitely fashioned gown of marquisette and chantilly lace. Matching lace edged the tulle veil and formed the Dutch cap which held the veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white Esther Reed daisies and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Martha Berg of Coquille, while Miss Jean Swift of Salem and Miss Malvenson of Clatskanie were bridesmaids. All three attendants wore gowns of white organdy over yellow taffeta and carried Esther Reed daisies and gladioli.

Mr. Donald Renwick of Silverton was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Richard Hopper, Eugene, and Mr. Keith Allen, Portland.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Marvin O. Hawkins. A reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Rankin during the afternoon between the hours of two and four.

Assisting in receiving the guests were Mrs. Rankin, mother of the bride, who wore a gown of grey

The newly-weds will be at home in Eugene following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.
