WRITTEN AND EDITED BY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Know Your Teachers

Do you know what Mrs. Coleman's pet peeve is? Well, you kids who end your sentences with "at" better be careful around her because that's it. Anyone who does this gets told about it. In a nice way, of course, because she is nice and a wonderful Home Ec. teacher.

The rest of Mrs. Coleman's name is Frances Bradford and she is from Monmouth, right here in our own state of Oregon.

She attended Mississippi State College for Women and is a graduate of Oregon State. She has been teaching for twelve years. She began her career at the high school in White Fish, Montana, and later spent two years teaching the third and fourth graders.

One who is full of vim, vigor, and vitality, and has a real desire to learn all he can is her idea of a good student. How many of us can qualify?

Some of you may think teachers aren't human. Well, they are and Mrs. Coleman is no exception. She enjoys watching a good game of baseball or football and likes to swim. These are her favorite sports. Her favorite food is salads. Trying new recipes is her hobby and she's a swell cook. Get to know her better, kids.

Five Newcomers On High Staff

BY JOAN PEART

This year we have five new teachers. We see them many times each day, but do you really know them?

Miss Velma Yeoman, our library and World Geography teacher, graduated from University of Oregon, where she was a graduate assistant in the geography department. During the war she was in the Waves.

Miss Jean Girts, a graduate of University of Oregon, lives in Tacoma, Wash. She taught in Grants Pass before coming here. A year ago last summer she went on a trip to Europe where she visited Holland, Belgium, France and Switzerland.

Mrs. Irma Damark came to Coquille after teaching at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Sag Harbor, New York. She graduated from Russell Sage college, Troy, New York. She teaches high school and junior high school Physical Education.

Mrs. Vivian Keister graduated from State Teachers college in North Dakota where she received her B. A. She had graduate work in UCLA. Last year she taught in Minnesota. She teaches English and Dramatics.

James L. McMahon came from Waterville, Maine. He graduated from Northern Idaho College of Education at Lewiston, Idaho. While in the war he was in the infantry. Before teaching he worked on the Lewiston Morning Tribune. He teaches American History and Social Economics and is the High Times adviser.

Visiting In Seattle—Mrs. M. P. Sawyer left on Wednesday for Seattle where she will visit her daughter.

To Attend Convention—Mrs. Frank Burbank and Mrs. Clarence Barton left on Tuesday for Bellingham where she will attend the Northwest District convention of the Soroptimist federation. They plan to visit en route to Bellingham in Seattle and Portland.

They plan now to fish for a few days in Bandon before returning to Santa Barbara where they own a lemon grove. Mr. Laird says the weather in Santa Barbara has been very dry for the past three years.

Catch Salmon—Fishing for silver-sides on Sunday on the upper Coquille river were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perrott. They reported a limit catch of fair-sized fish.

In California—Mrs. Jack Hultin left this week for Santa Rosa, California, where she will visit her sister who is ill.

Sophomores To Greet Freshmen In Gala Ceremony Tomorrow Eve

There comes a day each year when you may see the oddest things going on in Coquille Hi. This is the day of the Freshman initiation; the long awaited or dreaded day this year is Friday, October 7. The initiation is an annual affair in Coquille Hi with the arrangements always in charge of the sophomore class.

The sophomores are led this year by Rusty Centers as class president. Bob Groves is vice-president with Joyce Jones being their secretary. Lyndel Finley represents the class in the student body council. Miss Jean Girts is the class adviser. Those on the committee in charge of arrangements for the initiation are Velita Batty, Norma Jean Cole, Kay Simmons, Larry Schweinfurt, Leonard Scolar, and Doug Ostrander. A few of the things the sophomores have planned for Friday are as follows:

Hey! What are these strange characters coming down the hall? I see now they are just some of the freshmen dressed as comic characters. Every teacher will be supplied with an apple which every freshman is to polish red at the beginning of each class.

At noon if some one asks you to buy a soda cracker, of all things, don't be surprised. Each freshman must sell ten soda crackers which are supplied by the sophomores and are to be sold for a cent apiece. The money will be turned in to the sophomores.

The freshmen must be on hand to do all "services" for the sophomores such as carrying books, bowing, etc. The sophomores will be recognized by all. The girls of the sophomore class will be wearing ties which are to be tied by the freshman boys. The sophomore boys will be wearing beautiful scarves which are to be tied by the freshman girls.

The day will be drawn to a fitting close with an initiation program in the auditorium at eight o'clock in the evening. The program will be followed by a dance. All students are urged to attend the program and the dance.

Pep Club Raises Funds At Games

The Pep Club of Coquille Hi which was started by Miss Madglin Morgan, Phys. Ed. Teacher and Pep Club adviser. It was established for the purpose of promoting a better school spirit at the games. Mrs. Irma Damark is our new adviser.

Barbara Dixon, president of the club, opened the first meeting for the purpose of organizing the girls for the football games and nominating new officers for the new term. Officers elected were as follows: President—Jean McKinney; Vice President—Diane Buell; Secretary—Marvis Newton; Treasurer—Myrtle Serfling.

The girls decided to sell hot dogs at the games in order to schedule buses for the out of town football games. The Pep Club this year has increased in numbers as there are many new freshmen who came out for the first meeting. All together there will be about 50 members at the football games this year.

Home Economics Group Cans Fruit

BY LORNA WILLARD
During the first three weeks of school the Home Economics department has been busy canning fruits and vegetables and making jelly. The girls under the direction of Mrs. Frances Coleman have canned 148 pints and 58 quarts of pears, green beans, etc. They have also made 35 glasses of jelly and preserves. Mrs. Coleman said that this is about twice the amount that was canned last year.

The class also froze 40 pints and 30 quarts of peaches, plums, etc. This is the first year that the Home Ec. class has had a frozen food locker.

Mrs. Coleman has 76 girls in her classes this year and last year she had only 47.

Coquille Fems Play Softball

Did someone say that girl athletics aren't as good as boys? Statement overruled—if you could have been out at the high school baseball diamond some time last week, you would have seen some real ball playing! But why girls? Intramural is the answer.

Yes, for the first time in several years, the girls of Coquille High will have Intra-mural games. First on the list of activities for the year are inter-class soft ball games, and so far, these have proved to be real thrillers! Surprising results have come out—especially the fact that the underclassmen are ahead in the tournament at the present time.

Mrs. Irma Damark, girls' physical education instructor, advises the captains and their teams, and arranges the schedule of games.

The members of the teams are made-up of girls signing for the Intra-Mural program. Because the seniors aren't taking physical education, their class isn't represented in the Intra-mural league. The girls from each class elected two captains; The captains each chose a team each class has two teams playing in the tournament.

Ivyline Frye, Captain; Jeanne Van Patton, Joan Newton, Mae Dean Greene, Bonnie Noah, Bonnie Stoermer, Alma Thommen, Julia Cotter, Velma Burcher, Marlene Frazier, Patsy Starr, Diane Buell. Sophomores—Betty Hall, Captain; Velita Batty, Ruth Keeney, Barbara Schrag, Wanda Hills, Peggy Tuttle, Betty Clark, Joyce Jones, Garnet Cochran, Velma Miller, Norma Jean Cole, Carol Zwicker, Marjorie Dewey.

Yvonne Watling, Captain; Myrtle Woosley, Marcene Pruessler, Joan Gauer, Dian Jackson, Ramona Bonnell, Joan Tennent, Mary Pingleton, Lucille Roth, Glenna Noble, Lois Sell, Marlene Willard, Kay Simmons.

Freshmen—Sharon Griggs, Captain; Sherril Hatcher, Mary Kistner, Suzanne Cedarquist, Joan Benhan, Yvonne Charnicle, Donna Miller, Betty Hill, Gloria Smith, Hazel Mulkey, Patsy Wilson.

Joyce Taylor, Captain; Nola Capps, Marcia Mauney, Leola Barklow, Ramona Wigington, Phawn Scott, Mary Waters, Nana Foss, Colleen Brinkley, Leanna Ponder, Bonnie Denning.

October 7—Frye vs. Taylor
October 10—Griggs vs. Taylor
October 12—Frye vs. Hodgson

Good Appearance Pepsters Present

Martha Banta, Nancy J. Engen, Barbara Slater, Juanita Alford, Donna Gasner, Bobby Divion and Elaine Truell are girls who make up the pepsters. They have received no end of compliments from the football fans.

Their new uniforms are striking, they consist of red suede shoes, red skirts and white satin jackets with red devil emblems on the back.

The energy and enthusiasm they exhibit contributes no small amount to the football picture. Our football picture would be drab indeed without the smiling faces of these girls.

Attends Funeral—Mrs. Ernest Batty attended the funeral of her grandmother held on Tuesday in Talent.
