Late Society

Extensionists

To Meet Tuesday

The Coquille Extension unit will meet in the kitchen of the Coquille Community building on Tuesday, October 9, at 10 a. m. The demonstration will be "Gifts From Cloth." Each lady is asked to bring a spool of black and a spool of white thread, No. 50, pins, needles, scissors, scraps of cloth for making a toy and buttons for eyes. Care of small children will be provided.

Dorcas Ladies

Stuff Dolls

Filling a wool comforter and stuffing dolls for the church nursery kept the ladies of the Dorcas society of the Christian church busy when they met at the church parlors on Thursday.

President Carrie Benham led the devotions and conducted the business meeting. Letters of thanks were received from a nurse in Norway and from a missionary in Alaska, who had received parcels from the group. The ladies voted to purchase a set of dishes for the church nursery.

Present were Mesdames Willis Neely, Belle Hooton, John Boots, Zua Hooton, Carrie Benham, Arthur Hooton, Alton Dungey, Clarence Knapp, Harold McCue, Guy Kelley, Amos Payne and Dorcas Gibbs.

Grand Guardian To Visit Coquille

Mrs. Martha Elhart of Ashland, grand guardian, will be honored by Coquille Job's Daughters at a banquet in the Coquille hotel when she pays her official visit to the city on October 31. Plans for the banquet were discussed at meeting of the order held on Monday evening.

Arrangements for an apron bar were discussed. The girls will make the aprons and prizes will be given for the prettiest numbers. The sale will take place December 3.

On November 6 the Daughters in company with honored queen, Nancy Godard, will attend church, it was decided.

Guest At Lodge

Mrs. Fred McNelly of Portland was a guest at the meeting of the Mamie Rebekah lodge held on Tuesday evening. Mrs. McNelly gave an interesting account of the Oddfellows home in Portland.

The members voted a donation of $25 to be sent to the home and made arrangements to send parcels of linen and toys to the Oddfellows home and to Waverly home. Members will bring donations for the parcels to the next meeting of the Order.

Arrangements were made for the annual Halloween party to be held on Saturday, October 29. The event will start with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p. m. All Oddfellows, Rebekahs, and their families are invited to attend as well as visiting Oddfellows.

Appointed to the kitchen committee were Flossie Wolgamott, Myrtle Benham and Martha Trumbley.

A quiz contest was presented by Mrs. Trumbley and Halloween refreshments were served.

Riverton Grade School News

New desks have been placed in the first and second grade rooms. The children enjoy them a lot.

William Thurman, Natham Pettis and Kolin Kissell entered the first grade this week. This makes twenty-six in the first and second grade room.

The Cross children and their parents visited at Florence, Oregon last Sunday.

Several of the school children went hunting with their parents and some of them had very good luck.

Richard Georgis of the 7th grade has been absent several days because of an infection.

Charles and Dolores Myers visited in Eastern Oregon last week-end.

The cook's helper, Mrs. Edith Simmons and her son Duane, visited the Harold Libby family in Florence last Sunday. While there they enjoyed the pet bear cubs of the Libby children.
