Men and Missions Sunday Set For Observance Nov. 13

The 19th annual observance of Men and Missions Sunday, in which all Protestant churches of the United States and Canada have been invited to participate, will occur this fall on November 13.

The single purpose of that observance is to influence the layman of North America to support more generously the missionary work of their respective churches.

The observance is sponsored and promoted by the Laymen's Missionary movement of North America, Inc. It is represented in thousands of cities and towns by either a local pastor or a layman who serves as resident chairman. The Rev. Lawrence Guderian is resident chairman in Coquille. He is inviting every pastor to appoint one of his laymen to speak briefly on Christian Missions preceding the morning sermon on Sunday, November 13. This year's theme is "Let's act now for one world in Christ."

The speaker's manual for this day contains inspiring articles by General Douglas MacArthur, John Foster Dulles, Rt. Rev. W. Hobson.
