Bandon To Have Religious Census

A religious census covering every house in Bandon will be held Sunday afternoon, Nov. 13th, it was announced today by the Bandon Ministerial association.

The religious census will be conducted under the auspices of the Bandon ministers. It will give Bandon churches an insight into church membership and preference in that city.

Coquille conducted a similar census last year under the auspices of the Coquille Ministerial association.

Visiting From Portland—Mrs. F. C. McNelly of Portland is visiting in Coquille this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perrott.
