Douglass-Owen Vows Exchanged

Of interest to Coquille residents is the marriage of Miss Stella Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Owen of Los Angeles, and David Douglass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Douglass of Los Angeles, which took place by candlelight at the Tenth Avenue Baptist church, Los Angeles, at eight o'clock, Friday evening, October 7. Rev. Mr. Brideweser officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white bridal satin. Her veil of Chantilly was finger-tip length and it was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. J. D. Drafts, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Spring and Miss Terry Robinson. They wore gowns of powder blue satin, and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

The best man was Jerry Cure and the groom's attendants were Jerry Anderson and John Fodor. Acting as ushers were Ed Smith, Keith Tucker, Dick Papin and Marvin Holen.

The soloist, Mike Ballas, sang three selections, "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors. The young couple spent their honeymoon at Yosemite Park and are now at home at 690 W. 4th street, Coquille.

The groom is now working for the Mountain States Power company in Coquille, attended U. C. L. A. and is affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. The bride attended the University of Southern California.

Reed - Reed Vows Exchanged

The wedding of Miss Ruth Alice Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Reed of Spearfish, South Dakota, and Eugene A. Reed, son of the late Floyd Reed of Myrtle Point, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Weston of Coquille, was an event of October 21.

The ceremony was performed beneath an archway of autumn leaves and flowers. Mrs. Wayne Watson was the bride's attendant, while Victor Bushnell acted as best man.

Following the reception the newly-weds left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside at the Reed Dairy Ranch at Reed's Ford.

Eagles' President Coming to Roseburg

The Grand Worthy President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will be in Roseburg November 14. Coquille Eagles have received an invitation to attend the special program arranged in the president's honor. A delegation of Roseburg members attended the Eagles meeting at Coquille on Friday evening to extend the invitation personally. A six o'clock banquet, a special meeting and initiation ceremony, and a late evening salmon bake, have been planned, Coquille members were told.

Girl Scouting Ideas Related

Stimulating ideas on what-to-do for Girl Scout troops were reported at last week's meeting of troop leaders when Mesdames Amzy Mintonye, Orlando Anderson, E. L. Perrott and Guy Mauney told of their recent conference in Salem.

Plans for city-wide caroling at Christmas time were discussed. Girl Scout calendars to go to sale on November 5 were distributed to leaders.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Allen Smith, E. L. Perrott and George Fromm. Mrs. Elmer Benham, also a hostess, was unable to attend this meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Stuller.

Oakland Church Scene of Wedding Of California Girl and Melvin Steward

MR. AND MRS. MELVIN STEWARD
(Norma Bauhofer)

At candlelight ceremony performed September 30 in Grace church in Oakland, California, Miss Norma Bauhofer, daughter of Mrs. Madeleine Bauhofer, became the bride of Melvin W. Steward, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Steward of Coquille. The Rev. Irving Ford performed the double ring ceremony.

Don Bauhofer gave his sister-in-law a gown with a sweetheart neckline, buttoned down the back with a bustle and a full length train. Her lace trimmed fingertip veil fell from a coronet of pearl orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. Don Bauhofer was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pale aqua brocaded satin. She carried yellow roses tied with aqua ribbon. She wore yellow rosebuds in her hair. The bridesmaids were Shirley Steward, sister of the groom, and Frances Ford of Oakland. They wore gowns of pale yellow brocaded satin, and carried aqua carnations tied with yellow satin ribbon. They wore aqua carnations in their hair. The two candle lighters were Nita Edmonds and Mrs. Shirley Freston. They wore gowns of fuchsia taffeta. Little Jeanett Freston was the flower girl and she wore a floor length dress of white brocaded satin. Peter Jacobson was the ringbearer. Calvin Ziessler was the best man and the ushers were Miles Bauhofer and Everett Steward.

Calvin Ziessler sang the "Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. John Bell sang

"At Dawning," preceding the ceremony. After the ceremony was performed a duet was sung, "Living for Jesus," by Calvin Ziessler and Mrs. John Bell. A reception was held in the church parlors.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Yosemite National park and after their return will be at home in Daly City, California, where Mr. Steward is pastor of the Assembly of God church.

Church Honors Pastor And Wife

Rev. and Mrs. I. M. Nelson, recently arrived from Drain, were honored on Tuesday evening at a reception given in the parlors of the Coquille Christian church. Mr. Nelson took over the pastorate of the local Christian church early this month. Attending the reception were church members and friends as well as representatives of the Coquille Ministerial association.
