THIS WEEK:

Brotherly and Sisterly Love
By Vona Lee Wester, Age 10 Every sister should have brother A little bit older or a little bit younger.

If they're younger, you can boss them around But if they're older it's the other way around.

"Love my brother, course I do" But fighting's lots of fun, too.
The other night I hid his book Boy, oh, boy how he did look!
It was hid so very well But do you think that I would tell?

He got so mad he socked my chin

But do you think I'd give in?
Of course not, not me Cause I'm little sister of this family tree.

Mother soon appeared on the scene,

Now we both knew what that would mean!

Trumpet in his hand, clarinet in mine,

We sat there practicing for the longest time.

But really folks, I love my brother er

Just as I do my Dad and Mother.

Fairview Extension Unit Holds Meeting

The Fairview Home Extension Unit met Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the Fairview Grange hall with 24 members present.

Vice-chairman, Mrs. F. Stock, presided over the meeting. The meeting was quite short and adjourned in time to decorate the table before lunch. Mrs. A. Thom-men and Mrs. H. Hubble had a very nice Christmas tree and miniature logs for candle holders.
After lunch Christmas presents from Secret Pals were exchanged.
Everyone enjoyed it very much.
The meeting was then turned over to Project leaders, Mrs. J.
Hallenbeck and Mrs. W. Marcks.
The project was in "Family Recreation." They showed us several new games that were easy to improvise and simple enough for quite small children to play.

The following members were present: Mrs. I. Frye, Mrs. F.
Stock, Mrs. J. P. Nicholson, J. S.
Hollenbeck, Mrs. R. Hill, Mrs. A.
Saylor, Mrs. W. Marcks, Mrs. K.
Stratton, Mesdames R. Baker, H.
Miller, O. Roady, T. Eggars, V.
Hatcher, D. Lasten, H. Schneider, A. Thommen, H. Hubble, G.
Thommen, C. Cotter, H. Leatherman and F. Virtue.

Farr Employees Win

Three employees at Farr's in Coquille have won worthwhile prizes in dealer contests in recent weeks. John Boots won a food mixer, an electric shaver and a set of fog lights for contests sponsored by the Gould Water Systems; John Shilling won a Laundromat in a laundromat selling contest, and John Barrette won a Westinghouse vacuum cleaner in a vacuum cleaner slogan contest.
Mr. Barrette was the only winner in the Pacific Northwest who won in the nation-wide slogan contest, according to Donald Farr, manager of the Coquille store.

ALL EYES ON guest star Danny Kane, who makes a brief appearance as himself in the above scene from Warner Bros. Technicolor film, "It's A Great Feeling," starring Jack Carson, Dennis Morgan and Doris Day, coming to the Roxy Sun., Mon., Tues., Dec. 25-26-27.

Deer Pays Visit To Wernich Home

"It's cold in them thar hills." So unusually cold, in fact, that a deer strayed into the residential section of the town several times during the week and made himself comfortable in the R. A. Wernich garage. Tiny tracks are to be seen entering and leaving the building. Could be one of Santa's reindeer.

At Fairview

A number of friends and neighbors gathered Sunday for the house-raising of the Goodman's.
Mrs. Rosie Ross and family motored to Coos Bay Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geitner left Monday morning, Dec. 19, for Santa Rosa, Calif. Mr. Geitner plans on spending Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Jackson. There will be a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dungey of Coquille became the parents of a fine baby boy Sunday, Dec. 18, at 3:30 p. m. at Mast hospital in Myrtle Point. The young man who is the Dungey's first child has been named Ronald Franklin.
He weighed seven pounds, four ounces. Both sets of grandparents live in Fairview area. They are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Buoy and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dungey.

A lot of Christmas trees have been noted passing by on the tops of cars of all kinds.

William Judd had some excitement all by himself the other day.
He hitched his saddle horse to a sled, thinking to haul a little wood.
The horse started out o. k. but apparently became curious about what was following him so closely, so turned his head for a look. One look was enough and he started away from there. The sled struck Mr. Judd, knocking him down.
Then the sled hit a stump, the horse broke loose and ran out in the pasture. Mr. Judd had no broken bones and wasn't seriously hurt except for minor scratches where he was knocked into the barbed wire fence.

The Fairview grade school bus has broken down. It has to be overhauled and it will be several days before it can be in operation again.

Mr. and Mrs. David Tosten plan on visiting various relatives and compared to sales of $62,434 in October.

Returning From Honolulu—Mrs.
Mary Gage received word this week that her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKinley, who since their marriage have been residing at Honolulu, are returning to the States to make their home. Definite news of their future plans was not known.

Spend Christmas Here—M. T. Sgt.
Max M. Morgan arrived on Wednesday from his marine base at El Toro, California, and will spend Christmas with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kern.

Consumption of all types electric light bulbs in the United States last year was 12 per capita.
Almost two billion bulbs, worth $200,000,000, were shipped from factories.

May no cloud appear to disturb
