Corlyss Lucas Becomes Bride Christmas Day In Church Wedding At Myrtle Point

The First Methodist church, Myrtle Point, lovely with Christmas greenery and lighted candles, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Corlyss Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lucas of Agness, and Dean E. Northup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Northup of Ridgefield, Washington, on Christmas day. The Rev. Wilmer Briggs officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding, a gown of lace-trimmed white satin, fashioned with a full-length train. A crown of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. The maid of honor was Miss Donna Lucas, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Lila Mae Laird and Barbara Clarno. They wore identical gowns of Christmas-green velvet, which featured the off-the-shoulder effect. Sprays of holly decorated the white fur muffs which each carried.

The little candlelighter was Joyce Northup, sister of the groom, who wore a dainty frock of green and white organza.

Willard Lucas was best man and Verlin Hermann and Philip Linn were ushers. Mrs. Richard "Sorg" sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Chester Noyes.

As the bride approached the altar before the ceremony the groom stepped forward and sang "Wonderful One."

The reception which followed the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Linn of Coquille.

On their return from a wedding trip to California, the newly-weds will be at home at 5229 North-east Sixtieth street, Portland.

NEW YEAR'S DINNER ENJOYED

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Celebrated New Year's By Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hills

The turn of the half century was a red letter day for two residents of Coos county, Mr. and Mrs. Mark R. Hills, who celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary on Sunday, January 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills received the congratulations and well wishes of a large crowd of friends, and neighbors when a reception was given on Sunday afternoon at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guernsey Hills at their home south of Bandon. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Guernsey Hills and another daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Hills.

A beautifully decorated wedding cake centered the table which was further decorated with candies and flowers. The newly-weds of sixty years ago were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Hills was just thirteen years of age when as Jennie Gray she became the bride of nineteen-year-old Mark Hills at South Dayton, New York, on January 1, 1890. With the exception of thirteen years spent in Colville, Washington, the couple have spent the greater part of their married life in New York state. They came to Coos county a year ago, traveling by jeep the width of the country, and making the trip in a record of seven days.

In addition to the two sons in Coos county, the Hills have another son and two daughters in New York. They have eleven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.
