Woman's Club To Hear Of Girl Scout Work, Switzerland Girl Talk Scheduled

Jackie Wilkes of Portland, mariner scout, who attended the meeting last summer of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts in Adelboden, Switzerland, will tell of her experiences at the meeting of the Coquille Woman's club on Tuesday, January tenth.

Miss Wilkes was one of only four representatives from the United States to attend the encampment, being chosen from the Northwest district of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska. Other countries represented at the meeting in Switzerland were Australia, New Zealand, Austria, India, Italy, Liechtenstein and Luxembourg.

Program chairman is Mrs. LeRoy Swinney, and the sponsors of Miss Wilkes' appearance are members of the Coquille Girl Scout association. Leaders of troops from Coquille, Myrtle Point and Bandon and girls from older troops will attend the meeting.

At the present time, Miss Wilkes is a freshman at the University of Oregon.

Buffet Dinner Held At McClary's

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained at buffet dinner on Friday evening for members of the staff of the McClary Appliance company.

The setting for the affair was enhanced by the white-tinted Christmas tree with its wine colored decorations. The same color scheme was carried out in the table appointments.

Pinochle was played after dinner, with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Eugene Swearingen and Robert Plieth.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Litzberger, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Clymer, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dornath, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plieth and Roland Harris.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY EVENING

The Coquille Valley Garden club is scheduled to meet at the city hall on Wednesday evening, January 11, at eight o'clock. Anyone interested in gardening is invited to attend.

Wedding Date Told At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. David Rackleff entertained at open house for a few of their friends on New Year's day, at which time they announced the date of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Marianne, who on June 25, will become the bride of William McDonnal, son of Mrs. Flora McDonnal of Corvallis.

Miss Rackleff, who is completing her senior year at Oregon State college, and Mr. McDonnal, who is taking his final year at Willamette University, were present at the New Year's day party.

Displaced Family Move Discussed

Ways and means by which a family of four displaced persons now residing in Bamberg, Germany, could be brought to the United States were discussed at a meeting of the Cornerstone club of the Christian church held at the home of Mrs. Donald Farr on Tuesday evening.

The family, consisting of the father and mother and two children, have been assisted by the Cornerstone group for over a year. Devotions for the evening were lead by Mrs. Mike Screen. Ten members were present.

New Year's Mass Draws Many People

A large number of people of the Coquille Valley attended the midnight mass New Year's Eve at the Holy Name Catholic church. The mass emphasized the importance of the Holy Year, His Holiness Pope Pius XII having granted the privilege. The Rev. Stephen Breitenstein conducted the mass.

SCHOOL REOPENED TUESDAY
School reopened Tuesday after an eleven-day Christmas vacation. Next vacation will be during the Easter holidays.

Polio Poster Children Form March of Dimes Honor Guard

1950 drive, following nation's worst epidemic, will be led by Wanda Wiley, escorted by poster children of past four years.

1946: Donald Anderson, Ore.

1947: Nancy Drury, Ky.

1948: Terry Tullis, Miss.

1949: Linda Brown, Texas

1950: Wanda Wiley, Texas

MARCH OF DIMES poster children whose plight and progress depicts the fight against polio will tour seven cities in the 1950 drive, January 16-31. They will make a concerted appeal for greater contributions to provide effective continuation of patient care, research, and educational programs sponsored since 1938 by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

C.V.A. Club Topic

The Columbia Valley Administration question was discussed by George H. Jenkins, county agent, at a meeting of the Coquille Business and Professional Women's club held on Monday evening at the junior auditorium of the Community building. Mr. Jenkins outlined the bill and submitted arguments both for and against its adoption, substantiating his remarks with many quotations of opinion.

Mr. Jenkins was introduced by Miss Inez Rover, chairman of the public affairs committee, who was in charge of the evening's program.

During the business session, conducted by President Mrs. E. W. Hughes, Miss Rover reported for Mrs. William Klens, who is ill, that the club will sponsor a radio program on the local station on the first and third Mondays at 7:45 p.m. The program, which will be named "Career Girl," will feature an interview between a club member and a high school girl. Mrs. Klens will be chairman of "Career Girl."

Dr. Eleanor Gutman called attention to the new highway signs at both entrances to the city, and stated that the BPW club meeting dates are on the sign with other service clubs.

Miss Vivian House led a rehearsal of the song to be used by the Oregon delegation at the BPW national convention in San Francisco in July, 1950. "Roll on, Columbia, Roll On" has been composed for the event.
