

COQUILLE'S POPULAR CORNFED CANARIES, who will be featured at the Woman's Club May Day Festival, scheduled for April 29. Perhaps there are a few of the veteran members who will not be able to participate, but the performance of the group, singing "Melodies of the Half Century," will none-the-less be an outstanding part of the festival program. May 3rd Set At Date of Homemakers Festival For Coos County Women

The Coos county advisory council met with the H.D.A., Miss Agnes Ainley, for its regular monthly meeting at the court house in Coquille on Monday, March 20th. Miss Ainley reported that Miss Mary Beth Minden, O. S. C., had been in Coos county last week doing some follow up work on the planning of home kitchens. She announced that during the latter part of May a tour of these homes will be conducted, so that Coos homemakers may see for themselves how much can be accomplished by better planning. Slides will be shown of the kitchens before any changes were made and then the tour will take those interested into the homes. Exact dates and plans will be announced later.

The annual Homemakers' Festival will be held this year on May 3rd, during National Home Demonstration week. The committee worked out the details and planned the program so that many units will be taking part in one form or another. All homemakers are urged to make plans to attend the festival as a fitting climax to the year's extension work. Dean Milam of O.S.C. will be the principal speaker and Miss Frances Clinton and Mr. Frank Ballard of O.S.C. are also expected to speak and bring greetings from the college. Several demonstrations are being prepared as well as interesting exhibits of the work done in the past few years.

The next meeting of the council will be held on April 17th, at the court house in Coquille. Those present were Mrs. Willis Van Leoven, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Iyyl Frye, Mrs. Rud Kent, Mrs. Lloyd Messerle, Mrs. Robert White, Miss Mary Agnes Ainley.

Easter Styles Show That Certain Bulge: So Eat Less Girls!

Push yourself away hungry from the table girls.

Easter fashions this year are a poor deal for you ladies who love to eat. That's the word from Miss Muriel Scales, O. S. C. extension clothing specialist, who adds that it's a noble idea to apply the tape measure and step on the bathroom scales before promenading your Easter outfit.

The comparatively inactive winter months, with rich foods have a way of expanding a trim size 16 into a bulging 18 or 20.

Spring lines and designs in milady's wardrobe are more simple this year, and, consequently, require a better figure to set them off well. Winter styles with more frills and what-nots tended to hide figure bulges. Not so, this spring. Plain dresses and little detail put new emphasis on weight control.

New, shorter skirts just so much bad news for the ladies with a tendency toward extra weight. The higher skirtline, Miss Scales explains, will make many short women appear shorter; plump women, plumper.

Dress fabrics are soft and feminine this spring with pleats as the only decoration used on them. Colors tend toward the gay side—just added reason to keep weight down. Proper eating habits and diets and diet will also help make a clearer complexion, especially desirable when wearing a yellow or one of the so-called wheat colors.

Here's Miss Scales' rule of thumb to check your weight to see if it's within bounds: If you were satisfied with your average weight between ages 25 to 30, take that figure. Add 20 percent to it. If you weigh still more, cut down on the calories—you're overweight.

To check underweight, subtract 10 percent of your satisfactory weight. Below that—have an extra helping of butter and cream. It will do you more good than harm.

Birthdays Honored

Reception Honors New Demonstration Agent and Former Agent Mrs. Winkels

A reception for Miss Mary Agnes Ainley was held last week at the home of Mrs. Ed Dettelsen of Coquille. The county advisory council and alumni combined to welcome the new home demonstration agent, as well as to give a farewell party for the retiring agent, Mrs. Ella Winkels. Mrs. Willis Van Leoven and Mrs. Carl Nelson had planned several interesting games and students which were enjoyed by all.

Both Miss Ainley and Mrs. Winkels were presented with gifts from the group. The St. Patrick's day theme was carried out in the attractively served refreshments.

Those attending besides the ones already mentioned were: Mrs. Alex Maskey, Mrs. Rud Kent, Mrs. Charles Holverstott, Mrs. Alton McCue, Mrs. Lloyd Davenport, Mrs. Everett Messerle, Mrs. W. E. Frazier, Mrs. E. W. Hughes, Mrs. J. Alto, Mrs. F. L. Lanway, Mrs. Robert White, Mrs. Iyyl Frye, Mrs. Lloyd Messerle, Miss Marlene Frazier.

Winter Damage had us "snowed under"

It was bad enough to have the roof leak, but it had to pick a spot over our bedroom. Before Marge and I realized it, the plaster on the ceiling was ruined... some of the wallpaper, too, of course. The repairman who came to make the estimate put us next to a Home Improvement Loan through our bank. Sure enough, the First National Bank showed us how we could have repairs made when they are needed and pay for 'em out of future paychecks. A good way to keep a bad situation from getting worse... and certainly a great worry off our shoulders!
