Orvil Knight Dies In Portland

Powers was saddened to learn of the passing away at the Veterans Hospital in Portland April 10th of Orvil Knight.

Mr. Knight had been in poor health for the past few months and had been in the Mast hospital until only the past week when he was taken to Portland to enter the Veterans hospital. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Legion and Lions club of Powers. Until only a few months ago he was city recorder, having had to resign on account of his health.

He was born Oct. 22, 1891, at Myrtle Point, and leaves to mourn his passing, his widow, Mrs. Vivian Knight; two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Eshleman, who resides in California, and Raomi Knight of Powers; two stepsons, John L. Bushnell and Robert H. Bushnell; a grandson, Roger Charles Bushnell of Monmouth; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Perkins and Mrs. Nellie Culver of Myrtle Point and a brother, William J. Knight of Bothell, Wn.

To describe the kind of role she likes best, Luville Ball, co-starring with Bob Hope in Paramount's "Fancy Pants," coined the word, "Dramedy." It means, she says, comedy with a serious intent.

Buzzing Around POWERS

By RAY M. SHAFFAR
Road widening operations on the Coquille river road south of Powers are proceeding satisfactorily. A number of narrow places have been widened through a co-operative effort of the loggers and the Siskiyou National Forest. The road has been kept open as much as possible during the week days to permit the passage of logging crews and others to and from the jobs. The work has been hampered by the weather and the speed of the rock drilling operations. Another note to be given the newspapers when it is definitely known when the road will be closed. Information may be secured by telephoning Powers Ranger Station or (Continued on page 3)
