McKinley

Jack Mast of Coquille spent a few days this past week with his sister-in-law, Josie Mast.

Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert King and children, Mike and Linda, Josie Mast and Mildred King drove out to Medford. They returned Sunday evening.

The McKinley Extension unit was held Friday at the McKinley Grange hall. Lou Grace Heyman and Olive Howard were the project leaders for the project on lamp shades. The following made lamp shades: Grace Hudson, Marie Churchill, Mildred King, Emma King, Gladys Pointer, Eloma Casper, Georgia Burch, Wilma Shepherd, Colleen Wilson, Louise Heller, and Betty Cress. Colleen Wilson of Dora was a visitor.

The McKinley school children and visitors, Gary Mast, Lavon Koch, Gena Hall, Billy Howard and Jackie Brown, enjoyed an unusual Easter egg hunt Friday afternoon. The two eighth grade girls, Shirley Pointer and Sharon Koch, hid the eggs and each was a captain. As captains they each chose up sides, using all the children. The game was that as each child found an egg he was to run with it to his captain. He could not take but one at a time or he was out of the game. Sharon Koch's side won with forty-seven eggs; Shirley Pointer's side getting forty-three.

April 4 being Mrs. Steele's birthday, the lower grade teacher, the children had a little party for her.
