Broadbent Church Filled Easter

Attendance reached an all-time high of 86 at the Easter Sunday program and service at the Broadbent church, filling the church nearly to capacity.

The following program was given:

Greeting, Jan St. Louis; "Our Welcome," Beginners' class; "What Does Easter Mean to Me?" Primary Girls; Ann Bigelow, Jane Miller, Susan Babcock, Joy Caudle, Linda Cook, "The Crocus and the Robin," Juniors; "100th Psalm," Linda Cook; "Easter Bonnets," 14 Girls of the Primary and Beginners' Classes; "Trombone Solo," Phillip Fry; song, "Lesson of the Lilies," Young Girls' class; reading, Faye Rodgers; saxophone solo, "Whispering Hope," Patty Herman; readings, Ronald Legsdon; "In the Garden," with musical accompaniment, Romaine St. Louis; mirambi solo, Elizabeth Wiley.

An inspiring sermon on "The Resurrection," by Rev. J. R. Wiley, closed the service.

Saturday afternoon a large group of children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt at the church. Louis for finding the most eggs; Wayne Rodgers for the golden egg and Joy Caudle who was unable to find any eggs. Following the egg hunt practice was held for the Easter program.

Powers Will Have Opening Saturday Of Hollenbeck's

The opening of the new Hollenbeck & Son Garage and Shell station at Powers has been set for Saturday, April 22, according to Mrs. Hollenbeck who visited The Sentinel office this week.

With the opening of the new store the Hollenbecks are taking the dealership for Montgomery-Ward Riverside tires, tubes, batteries and electrical appliances. A floor display will be featured in the Powers store which will maintain a catalogue order service for Ward customers.

The Hollenbecks have been in the garage business in Powers since 1944. Previously they operated the Shell Service station in Coquille.

Sales representative for Hollenbeck & Son is George Eckholm of Coquille who promises a twenty-four hour delivery service to all sections of Coos and Curry counties.

Marshall Dana To Speak At Commencement

Marshall Dana, editor of the Portland Journal, will be the commencement speaker at Coquille high school it has been announced by Ray Hunsaker, Coquille superintendent, this week. Commencement is set for May 25.

Dana will speak, too, at the Myrtle Point commencement exercises on May 24.

Voter Signup Ends Next Tuesday P. M.

Last chance to sign up for the right to cast a vote in the May 19th primaries is Tuesday, April 18, Clerk Lloyd Oddy said today.

At present registrations are running heavily toward the Democratic party in Coos county, it was learned from a cursory check of the registration forms.

Ag Census Forms At Coos Post Offices

Agricultural census forms may be obtained at post offices at Coquille, Bandon, Riverton, Broadbent and Powers, according to Mrs. Jean Metcalfe, census supervisor. At the time of mailing the supply of forms was inadequate. Farmers who did not receive copies may obtain them at their local post offices. A previous knowledge of the census requirements will greatly facilitate the work of the census takers, Mrs. Metcalfe points out.
