Job's Daughters Have Mother's Day Program

Mothers of Coquille's Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 15, were honored Monday, at a special meeting of the order.

A special program for which Leola Barklow was chairman included a clarinet solo by Colleen Brinkley, accompanied by Marcia Mauney; a vocal solo, "Ireland Must Be Heaven," by Jo Ann Newton accompanied by Sandra McCurdy; and a skit "The News" enacted by Judith Milne, Bobby Jean Harris, Nadeen Molthu, Louise Jenkins and Florence Pier-son. Jo Ann Newton read a short story, "Mothers Day."

During the business meeting a letter was read giving information on the Supreme session which will be held in California in August. Job's Sunday originally planned for May 14 was postponed. A cooked food sale to be put on by the drill team for the purchase of uniforms was announced.

Tables in the banquet room were beautifully decorated for the after-meeting program. Placecards for the Mothers were nosegays made from print handkerchiefs.

Jo Ann Newton, Bethel librarian, acted as toastmistress and Honored Queen Elaine Trull welcomed the mothers to which Mrs. George Jenkins responded.

A dance "The Strut" by Suzanna Cedearquist and Mary Kistner was dedicated to guardian Mrs. "Peg" Gould. Jo Ann Newton sang "Aint She Sweet," and lead the group in singing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" in honor of Queen Elaine Trull, whose engagement was announced earlier in the evening.

Secret Sisters were revealed. At the next meeting of the order on April 22, an election of officers will be held. Installation of officers is scheduled for April 29.

Mother's Day Celebrated

Father Breitenstein of Holy Name Catholic church was the guest speaker at the fifteenth annual Mother's Day service arranged by Coquille lodge, No. 2198 F. O. E.

The auxiliary mother, Mrs. George Adams, was seated at the altar, lovely with flowers and lighted tapers, by members of the auxiliary drill team. Attending the Mother were flower girls, Pamela Menning and Randa Baker.

The presentation of the flag and pledge was given by members of the Eagles sponsored Boy Scout troop, No. 63.

Vocal solos, "My Mother's Prayer" and "Mother" were sung by Grace Vigue and Kenneth Ludwig and a violin selection "Mother of Mine" was played by Louis Kycek. Mrs. Noel Benham played the accompaniments.

Master of Ceremonies was Eagle president, Frank De Costa, who was assisted by Mrs. De Costa in presenting corsages to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, the mother with the largest family, Mrs. Noel Benham, and the youngest mother present, Mrs. Lois Gilchrist.

Opening and closing prayers were offered by Rev. D. D. Nelson of Fairview.

AID RED CROSS DRIVE

Coquille's successful Red Cross drive which topped last year's drive by two dollars was organized by chairman Cline Finley. One third of the total collected came from the residential area, it has been revealed. Mrs. Eugene Chap-pell, through the Coquille Woman's club, was in charge of the residential campaign.

Business, Social Meeting W. S. C. S. Held

The regular business and social meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church was held Thursday beginning at noon with a luncheon served by Circle Three. Mrs. W. P. Laws and Mrs. Viola Newton reported on the Oregon Conference held at Corvallis, May 4 and 5.

The Wesleyan Guild extended an invitation to members and friends of the Woman's Society to attend a joint meeting June 1 at 8 p. m. in the church parlors. As a result the next business and social meeting was postponed to June 8, so that as many as possible could come. Mrs. George Taylor invited everyone to her cabin on Croft Lake for the annual picnic, August 3.

The Circles will meet as follows: Circle Number One at Mrs. George Howe's home. Belle Knife Circle at Mrs. Roy Boober's. Cir-
