JOURNAL EDITOR ALSO VISITS MRS. DANA'S AUNT

Through an inadvertence, the mention of the visit of Editor and Mrs. Marshall Dana to the home of Mrs. Dana's aunt, Mrs. Annie Lett of Myrtle Point, was omitted from last week's news items in The Sentinel. Editor Dana had delivered commencement addresses in both Coquille and Myrtle Point to high school graduating classes. Mrs. Dana was born at Norway, and it was a homecoming of kind for her.

A $100,000 STUDENT LOAN fund, established 25 years ago by terms described in the joint wills of Edward G. and Ida M. Crawford, Portland, is available to young men desiring assistance in furthering their education, Robert M. Alton, vice president and trust officer of the United States National Bank, announced recently. Loans are limited to students preparing for a career in any one of the mechanical arts, trades, practical business or any of the professions except medicine, law, theology, pedagogy and music, Alton stated. The applicant must have attended a primary school, Alton continued, and should indicate a desire and ability to help educate himself.

Coos People Back From Alaskan Trip

Back from the Portland Journal trip to Alaska are Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Schroeder.

They report a highly enjoyable trip, and said the entire Journal-sponsored vacation was fine. They commented on the efficient way in which all plans had been made by the Journal, and said that even in places where there were no cars, care had been taken to see that transportation was available.
