Powers News

BY HAZEL LEWIS

Mrs. F. E. Morgan of Oregon City, who has spent the past two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Thorp and family returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Springfield were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arve Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Freeman.

Robert Morris Jr., Mrs. Virgil Miller of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Smith of Hoquiam, Wash., were guests this week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris of North Powers.

June 6th, and snow falling at Stanley Camp. Men had to come home. Between those laid off for the strike and the weather, Powers folks have rather a sorrowful expression. Oh, what is so rare as a day in June? Fire fighters are rejoicing over the rains, however.

Athlee W. Hoyt of Vallejo, Calif., is visiting his mother, Mrs. T. W. Murphy. Mrs. Murphy will return south with her son for an extended visit.

Mrs. Bruce Munro is recovering from a major operation performed at the Mast hospital and is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Roth, a nurse from Seattle.

Mrs. Wilbur Merchen and two daughters, Kay and Joyce, accompanied by Mrs. Merchen's mother, Mrs. Noble Stanley, are on a two-week vacation in Huntington Park, California.

Several building activities are in progress in Powers. Hall's Grocery is receiving a complete job of renovation; the Masonic hall and Rolfe's Grocery a face lift and new foundation, and one of the old landmarks of Powers, the Greenfield house, is being torn down and the lumber taken by the owner, Averill Taylor, to his property on the river to build a new home. Several of the business houses on Main street are receiving a coat of paint and are presenting a much more attractive appearance.

A very interesting report was given at Chasparal Rebekah lodge No. 231 Monday night of the Rectoria last week, by the delegate, Mrs. Lester Thorp. Following the meeting, Mrs. Clyde Hall, Mrs. Thomas Brierley and Mrs. William Anderson were hostesses. It was announced that a memorial service would be held at the next regular meeting and all members were urged to attend.

Clark Bros. and Stanley donated the use of their bulldozer Saturday for use in building new roads and clearing the grounds in Orchard park in Powers. The park will be used as a picnic spot, and the project is being cosponsored by the Powers Lions club.

Mrs. John Kusba has returned from a trip to Eugene, where she visited with her daughter, Miss Dorothy West, and helped make plans for Miss Dorothy's approaching marriage in August.

Mrs. William Link of Eugene spent Memorial day week with friends in Powers.

Pete Zworski, from the Big Ben ranch at Illahee, was a Powers overnight visitor this week. He was on his way to Portland.
