

St. James' Episcopal Church To Have Forrester-Vandecar Marriage Ceremony

Being solemnized at St. James' Episcopal church today at 2 p. m. is the marriage of Miss Pauline Vandecar, daughter of Mrs. Lucinda Vandecar of Myrtle Point and Mr. Joseph R. Forrester of Powers, son of Mrs. Elsie Forrester of Coquille. Rev. Robert Lessing will officiate at the ceremony which will be performed before an altar lovely with white roses.

The bride who will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Don Stapleton, will be gowned in shimmering white bridal satin. Her finger-tip veil will be held in place with orange blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of pink roses and gardenias.

Matron of honor will be Mrs. Don Stapleton of Idaho, sister of the bride. She will wear green marquisette and will carry a nosegay of pink roses. Her cap of flowers will match her bouquet.

Mrs. John Perkins of Eugene, Mrs. David Biegger and Mrs. E. H. Sommers will be the bride's attendants. They will wear identical dresses of yellow marquisette and will carry nosegays of pink carnations. Their headbands will be of contrasting flowers.

The candlelighter will be Marjorie Vandecar, sister of the bride, and the flower girl, little Penny Lee Perkins, who will scatter rose petals in the path of the bride and groom.

The best man will be Verlin Herrmann of Broadbent, and ushers will be E. H. Sommers, David Biegger and John Perkins of Eugene.

Mrs. George Forrester will sing "The Lord's Prayer" and "Perfect Love" and Wayne Smith will play the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception is being held in the Cedar Room of the Coquille hotel.

The newly-weds will go to Idaho on a two-week wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Powers where the groom is employed by Standley Brothers. The bride is a member of the nursing staff of Mast hospital, Myrtle Point.

Marriage Vows Exchanged By Local Young People

Carol Eva Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben M. Walton of Coquille and Richard L. Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clayton of Sitkum, exchanged nuptial vows at two-thirty o'clock Sunday, July 2, in a pretty ceremony at Emmanuel Baptist church, Coquille. For the single ring, candlelight rites, the church was lovely with pink and white larkspur, white gladioli and pink and white snapdragons. Rev. A. L. Kunkel was the officiating minister.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a short train. The net yoke was edged by a ruffle of lace and featured a seed pearl trim. A net coronet held in place the finger-tip veil which was edged with lace. Yellow roses and white gardenias were used in the bridal bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Phyllis Walton, sister of the bride, chose to wear a gown of lace trimmed green ninon which featured a hoop skirt. She wore a headress of pink carnations and carried a nosegay of pastel mixed flowers tied with pink streamers.

Miss Joan Walton, also a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. With her orchid gown of lace trimmed ninon, she wore a headress of yellow carnations and carried a pastel nosegay tied with yellow streamers.

The little flower girl, Ruth Ann Talley, wore a frock of pink dotted swiss and carried a basket of rose petals. Mary Lee Walton, sister of the bride and Karen Liday, gowned in yellow dotted swiss, were the candlelighters.

The best man was Chester Wood, cousin of the groom and Vernon Brockman acted as usher.

Kenneth Talley, the soloist, sang "Because" and "Always", accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Talley, who also played the wedding march.

A reception was held in the Fellowship room of the Baptist church. The cake was cut by Miss Donna Compton of Chico, Calif., and punch was served by Miss Kathleen Brockmann and Miss Betty Hatcher. Miss Mary Miller was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Donna Compton of Chico, California; Mrs. Luella Clayton of Kerman, California, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padgett of Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Knight of Myrtle Point; Earl Hockema of Pistol River; Robert E. Mitchell of Glendale, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clayton of Sitkum.

Following a wedding trip up the Oregon Coast the newly-weds will reside at 310 South Maple, Coquille.
