Pinkston-Curtis Marriage Vows Given In Coos Bay Presbyterian Church

The marriage of Florence Mae Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George I. DeNoma of Coquille, and Perry R. Pinkston of Coquille was solemnized at four o'clock Monday, July 1, at the Presbyterian church, Coos Bay. Rev. Oscar Payne officiated at the double ring ceremony.
With her navy blue street-length dress, the bride wore a choker of pearls and white accessories. Her bouquet was of roses and carnations. George DeNoma gave his daughter in marriage.
The matron of honor was Vera Rose of Portland, Oregon, and the bridesmaid was Ethel Mae Curtis of Coos Bay. Mrs. Rose was gowned in black and carried a colonial bouquet. Miss Curtis wore lavender and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.
Doil Capps of Coquille acted as best man and ushers were Robert F. Curtis and Darrell Austin.

At the reception held in Westminster hall, Coos Bay, Mrs. Jess Woolley poured and Mrs. Robert Garrick cut the cake.
The bride's mother, Mrs. De Noma, wore a figured dress of black and white with white accessories and the groom's mother was gowned in blue-grey.
The newly-weds will be at home July 16 at 1055 North 10th St., Coos Bay, following a wedding trip to Northern Washington, Grand Coulee Dam and Crater Lake. For traveling the bride wore a grey suit with pink accessories.
Out-of-state guests at the wedding were Mrs. J. J. Roth and three daughters of Burlington, Washington; Clarence Pitchford of Tacoma, Washington, and Mrs. Florence Cunningham of St. Petersburg, Virginia.
Week-End In Eugene — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson were week-end visitors to Eugene and Drain.
