Pinocle Played

Pinocle was played Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Hooker. Prize winners for the evening were Mrs. John Burg, Mrs. Calvin Teuscher and Mrs. Tom Ferry.

Playing were Mrs. Leonard Day, Mrs. Tom Thrift, Mrs. Marvane Lake, Mrs. Charles McIntee, Mrs. Carroll Salisbury, Mrs. Calvin Teuscher, Mrs. Tom Ferry and Mrs. John Burg.

of their local church. Mrs. Mary Gage led devotions and gave a report on the Dorcas Federation meeting held in connection with the recent Adventist camp meeting held at Gladstone park. Ninety-four Dorcas societies and seven federations were represented at this meeting. Members of the local Dorcas society who attended the federation meeting were Mrs. Joe Staninger, Mrs. Eva May Anderson and Mrs. Mary Gage.

Comforter Tied For Farm Home

Ladies of the Women's Missionary Council of the Assembly of God church tied a comforter for the Children's Farm home at Corvallis at a recent work meeting held in the Fellowship hall. Three thick mattress pads to be sent to a missionary in the Philippines were made.

The notions doll, which won a prize at the Camp meeting, was displayed.

Three boxes of clothing were packed for shipment to Brooks for distribution overseas. Gifts of clothing and quilt scraps of cotton or wool are being sought by the ladies to assist them with further work of the kind.

The usual planned luncheon at noon was served to the following ladies: Mesdames Potter, Spalding, Bruce, English, DeNoma, Hartig, Watson, Ellis, Roberts, Holmstrom, Schroeder, Surrill and Benham.

Relief Corps To Work On Quilts

For the price of $3 the Women's Relief corps of Coquille will tack and finish quilts or comforters for anyone, it was decided at a recent meeting of the organization. Arrangements can be made by calling Mrs. Ida Roth, phone 2862.

Mrs. Gertrude Sovers was initiated at the meeting held in the Labor Temple.

Child's Farm Home Given Gifts

Gifts of clothing for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis were received on Friday at a meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. Esta Ellis.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will sell greeting cards, the proceeds from which will go to assist the Children's Farm Home which is giving shelter to twenty-nine Coos county children at the present time. In addition to the greeting cards the ladies are selling shopping bags.

A quilt pieced by Mrs. Anna Morrison and tied by the W. M. C. ladies was displayed. Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Skeels volunteered to bind the edges of the quilt.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Birdie Skeels, Anna Morrison, A. B. Schroeder, James Richmond, Walton, Potter, W. P. Laws and the hostess, Mrs. Ellis.

ENJOY PLANE TRIP EAST TO PICK UP NEW CAR

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Reed who arrived home Sunday after a 16-day trip to Detroit, Michigan, and back again, said that the only way to buy a new car is to pick it up at the factory. They flew to Detroit and then drove to Pontiac, Michigan, where they took possession of their new Pontiac. Within an hour they were on their way home, stopping in Nebraska, Estes Park, Colo., and other spots before arriving in Coquille.

Alaskan Mission Worker Talks

Mildred James of Myrtle Point, who will return shortly to her missionary work in Alaska, showed a flannelgraph of an Alaskan village and told of her work there, at a meeting of the Women's Missionary council of the Assembly of God church held recently in the Fellowship hall. Miss James displayed and modelled the parka, mittens and moccasins which they wear in Alaska as protection against the cold.

Mrs. Howell volunteered to supervise the mending of song books.

A letter from missionaries in Africa requested a bell and organ and Alaskan workers asked for dried fruit and staple groceries.

Two visitors from Fairview, Mrs. Buoy and Mrs. May, were present.

MYRTLE CLUB GIVEN LUNCHEON THURSDAY

Mrs. Roscoe Anderson entertained Myrtle club members at luncheon at her home on Thursday. Present were Mrs. Gayle Bush, Mrs. Albert Mannellin, Mrs. Joe Cook, Mrs. Earl Standley, Mrs. Dewey Beyers and Mrs. J. W. Ruble.

LEACH'S HAVE GOOD VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Leach of Bandon-Riverton route had a good visit with their son and family in Marine City, San Francisco, over the 4th of July. The Leachs took the Greyhound bus to San Francisco where they visited Lon Leach and his family and came back up by bus. They then drove to Dallas where they visited Mr. Leach's two sisters, one of whom works in Lebanon.
