Over 124 children are enrolled in the swimming class with Laura Lee-Garrett and Miss Boileau as instructors.

At a special meeting to receive the official visit of the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Helen R. Davis, two candidates, Mrs. James McCart and Mrs. Kenneth Barkdoll were initiated into the Rebekah degree, with a candlelight ceremony. A drill by which the officers were seated, preceded the opening. Other distinguished guests introduced by a committee composed of Mrs. Loren Warner, Mrs. Clarence Spitznass and Mrs. Emory Hubbard were Mrs. Joseph Boutin, D. D. P. of Powers, Mrs. May Lindstrom of North Bend, and Mrs. Catherine Olsen, chaplain of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, from Astoria.

A very interesting, constructive talk was given by Mrs. Davis. The N. G. Mrs. Bob Root, presented a gift to Mrs. Davis from the Powers lodge.

The hall decorations were beautiful with a background of greenery on which was a floral Bible, Mrs. Davis' emblem of her year. In a semi-circle above were the words, "I Owe Others Friendship," her motto for the year. Pink and green streamers carried out the lodge colors. The decorating was done by Mrs. Bob Root, Mrs. Lowell Davis, Mrs. Joseph Boutin and Mrs. Emory Hubbard. Corsages were made by Mrs. James McCulloch, Mrs. Elvin Hull and Mrs. Lowell Davis.

Potluck followed around tables decorated by Mrs. Thomas Brierley and Mrs. Clarence Spitznass in the Chinese motif.

Word has been received by friends of Mrs. Sam Barber of McMinnville, but formerly of Powers, that she has fully recovered from a recent operation.
