BY HAZEL LEWIS

Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Thorp are leaving this week for an extended vacation. They will spend one night at Government Camp on Mt. Hood where they will visit their son, John Thorp. Then they plan to go to Washington where they will visit an aunt of Mr. Thorp's. After this they will tour Yellowstone National Park, then they will go on to Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado to visit other relatives. Mrs. Thorp intends visiting her grandmother, who is past ninety years of age, while at Leedy, Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Thorp will return home the later part of August.

Mrs. Hazel Lewis has taken her mother, Mrs. Ida Matthews, for a two weeks visit with relatives in California. They left Friday morning by bus, going to Eureka where they will visit with relatives. Then they will go on to San Francisco for a visit with a son of Mrs. Matthews. They will be away for about two weeks.

Roy Abbott, Trainmaster for the Coos Bay Lumber Company, is undergoing surgery at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point.

John F. Thorp, who is working for the Public Roads administration at Government Camp, Oregon, was a weekend visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Thorp.

Mrs. L. T. Beals from Eugene, Oregon, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Utterback. Mrs. Mary Eakin, their mother, is also at the home of Mrs. Utterback. Mrs. Beals, after leaving Powers, will visit other sisters, Mrs. Al Smith of Coquille and Mrs. Clarence Dudley of Empire before returning to Eugene.

Mrs. Tom Utterback spent several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Hughes of North Bend. Mr. Hughes is Mrs. Utterback's nephew.

Visiting at the home of the Jess Walker's over the weekend were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ruttencutter.

Frank Hegarty, Miss Madelon McMahon and Bobby McMahon have returned from a visit to Wyoming. They were gone four weeks, and said they had found much hot weather. Mr. Hegarty brought his sister, Mrs. George McMahon of Red Cloud, Nebraska, for a visit at the home of R. J. McMahon, her brother-in-law.

Madelon McMahon has gone to Floras Lake for two weeks camp. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McMahon and family, Mrs. George McMahon and Frank Hegarty took Miss McMahon to camp. They then went to Bandon Beach to spend the day. It was the first time. Mrs. George McMahon had ever seen the ocean, and while it was cold, she enjoyed the experience very much. Other trips of interest are planned while Mrs. McMahon is visiting. When she leaves Powers she will go to California for a visit with other relatives.

An invitation was received by members and friends of the Open Bible Church from Mr. and Mrs. John Kusba to the wedding of Miss Dorothy West, daughter of Mrs. Kusba, to Price Roop of Eugene at the First Baptist church of Eugene on Sunday, August 6th. Mr. Roop is a graduate of the University, and hopes to get a teaching post this fall. The young couple will make their home in Eugene for the present.

Mrs. Bill Shorb and children returned from a two weeks visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grove of Ontario, Ore.

Red Cross swimming classes, under the supervision of Mrs. Laura Lee Garrett of Coos Bay, Red Cross instructor, are continuing through this week with well attended classes. The local Lions Club has provided a diving raft and other equipment needed for the classes.

The Power's chapter of the Women of the Moose held a regular meeting on Friday, July 21st. Mrs. George Dobson installed Mrs. Cody Leggett as Sentinel and Mrs. Ruby Winkelman as Argus. Mrs. Clyde Allen surprised members by providing corsages for each one present. The next meeting will be Friday, August 4th, at which time a candidate will be initiated. Committees appointed were: refreshments, Mrs. Clyde Hall, Mrs. Geo. Dobson and Mrs. Clyde Allen; corsages and decorations, Mrs. Bill Grove. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Edwin Peterson and Mrs. Elmer Post. Mrs. Clyde Hall's anniversary was observed during the social hour which followed the meeting.

Powers R. N. A. held its regular meeting on Monday, July 24th. Plans were made for a Rally to be held September 11th, honoring the State Supervisor of the R. N. A. Mrs. Dale Crewe served refreshments.
