Methodist Church Scene Of Wedding Uniting Popular Coquille Couple

The altar of the Pioneer Methodist church was lovely with white gladioli and orchids for the candlelight ceremony at eight o'clock Saturday evening which united in marriage, Bonnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan of Coquille, and Herbert "Bud" Hickam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hickam of Coquille. Rev. Lawrence Guderian officiated.

The lovely bride wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a mandarin neckline, embroidered with seed pearls, and a long waist line from which the full skirt flared into a full train. Her fingertip veil was of nylon net and lace and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and bavardia centered with an orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Mollie Wersh, chose a gown of orchid organza, styled similarly to that of the bride. She wore a matching bonnet and gloves and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of rosebuds and gladioli. The bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Dixon, wore an identical frock of green organza, with matching mitts and bonnet and carried white rosebuds and gladioli.

Alvin Hickam was his brother's best man and the ushers were Ronald Morgan, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Neely.

Mrs. Lawrence Guderian played the wedding music and Carroll Nickels sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Wayne Kaylor, an aunt of the bride, presided at the table beautifully arranged with bouquets of sweet peas and orchids. Mrs. June Mohagen cut the cake and the punch was served by Miss Priscilla Hickam. Mrs. Jerry McEl-downey had charge of the guest book; Mrs. Lester Hansen, the gift table, and assisting with the serving were Misses Jean McKinney, Carol Crinklow, Nancy Engen and Marianna Culver.

The wedding trip to Canada the bride wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories. The newlyweds will reside at the Taylor Court apartments when they return.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne or of Reedsport, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Martin of Reedsport, and Mrs. G. W. Brewster of Scottsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Leo La Branche of Coos River, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wells of Coos River, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Myers of Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Richardson of North Bend.

Engagement News Told This Week

The engagement of Miss Jacquelyn Briggs of Coos Bay and Leon Kambek, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McClellan of Coquille, has been announced by Miss Briggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Briggs of Coos Bay. The wedding date has not been set.

Miss Briggs, a graduate of Marshfield high school, attended Oregon State college. Mr. Kambek, in his senior year at Oregon State college, is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. Matilda Engen returned on Saturday from Portland where she attended a state conference of distributive education teachers. The conference was held at the Multnomah hotel and many interesting social affairs were arranged in connection with the meetings. Ladies in attendance were guests of honor at a Meier and Frank fashion show.

Miss Jean Van Auken arrived this week from Montana to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Benham. The Benhams met her in Roseburg. After leaving Coquille she will go to Seattle to visit a sister there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boots had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. Boots' mother, Mrs. M. W. Boots, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boots and family, all of Philomath. Alson house guests were another brother, Lawrence Boots, and John Reed of Lebanon. Fishing on the lower Coquille river on Sunday, John said that they had typical Boots luck—no fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Peterson have had as their guests, Mrs. Karl Drlica and three children of Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Drlica have just returned from three years spent at Fendai, Japan. In Corvallis Mr. Drlica will teach in the physical education department at Oregon State college. Mrs. Drlica, formerly Gail Hufford, is a graduate of Coquille high school and taught for a time at Riverton.

MISS SHIRLEY STEWARD whose marriage to Wayne Timmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Timmons, will take place on September 23 at the home of Miss Steward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Steward. (Coquille Studio Photo)
