Judge To Act In Log Battle

Marion county Circuit Judge Rex Kimmel Friday had under consideration testimony offered in a suit attacking a recent order of Public Utilities Commissioner George H. Flagg suspending permits of 18 logging operators to drive their trucks on state highways because of overloading.

The order was issued at the request of the state highway commission.

The Moore Mill and Lumber company, Bandon, attacked the order on the ground that there was no hearing and received a temporary order staying the suspension. The suspension order involved all 18 truck operators.

The plaintiff did not challenge the right of the state to limit loads. The state highway commission intervened in the proceeding.

Most of the logging operators involved in the public utilities commission order are located in the coastal area.

A Truly Wonderful Car!

If you were to sum up, in one word, the complete story of the new Pontiac, no word would fit so precisely as "wonderful." It's the most natural thing in the world to describe Pontiac's rare beauty as "wonderful." No other word seems to quite do, either, for the luxurious comfort and appointments in Pontiac's big new Bodies by Fisher. And on the road, Pontiac just naturally accepts superlatives—because it is such an eager car, such a relaxed, easy-striding performer—for such a long, long time. Perhaps the most "wonderful" thing of all is Pontiac's price—so low that virtually nobody seriously challenges the idea that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!
