Long and Short

Pioneer Group Too Late
Politics in Coos county are steady but not spectacular. With contests for a county judgeship, a commissioner, and a seat in the Oregon legislature at stake, no voter seems unduly excited about the November 7th election. However, as the leaves turn a bit more golden, we predict you'll see more and more of the candidates.

Not so long ago we started mentioning different lovely flower gardens we saw in our drives and we started something. Friends of different flower growers phone us, stop us on the street, write us, to tell about people they know who do a particularly fine job of raising choice flowers. And believe it or not, we love it, for we want to give everyone who makes Coquille beautiful rightful recognition. Two this week are Mrs. Salma Caughell who has done a wonderful job for the flower loving fraternity, and Mrs. Clifford Kern who not only raises flowers (and orchids too) but who is so good she is called upon by garden clubs around the state to serve as a judge of flower shows.

Every year or so Sheriff Bill-Dad Howell runs in our legal columns a list of unclaimed deposits in Coos county banks. These are accounts that have been inactive for seven years, and if the money is not claimed following publication of the notice, it then reverts to the state of Oregon. This week and next week we will be publishing a list of "unclaimed deposits" from the Coos Bay National Bank of Marshfield. Maybe a friend of yours has his name listed?

Two groups stand out in the affection of Frank Hilton, new advertising manager of The Sentinel. One is the Coos-Curry Pioneer and Historical association of which he and Mrs. Hilton are among the first members, and the other is the Sixes Grange. Hilton who comes to The Sentinel from the post of advertising director on the TRI-CITY HERALD daily, of the Pasco-Kennewick-Hanford atomic bomb area, is rejoicing in getting back to "God's country where it is green and cool, and the people are real honest-to-goodness neighbors. "You don't know what you have done here," he told us, "until you get away from it." Hilton for four years was managing editor of the COOS BAY TIMES.

Cranberry Market Zooms Across Nation

"It's mighty fine, the cranberry market," said genial M. S. Anderson, sales manager for the National Cranberry company, today while visiting the Coquille plant which he organized and constructed some seven years ago. The Coquille and Washington plants have shipped one-quarter million cases this year, nearly twice as much as last year for the same period, Anderson stated. And beyond that fact, the market for cranberries is really good all over, he said.

Building Permits

Building permits have been issued to Jack Randleman, 658 N. Collier, for extending kitchen and erecting roof over porch, estimated at $1000; to C. A. Rietman, 390 E. 2nd, for addition of a back-porch and window changes estimated at $900, and to Mrs. Archie Johnson, 559 Riverton Ave., new concrete foundation estimated at $800.

Pioneer Group Too Late

In a letter to Judge L. D. Felsheim of the Coos county court today, District Attorney James Norman told the judge it was too late to get the issue of levying a one-half mill tax to create a historical fund upon the November 7th ballot.

The letter from Norman to Felsheim said:

The enabling act is Chapter 246, Oregon Laws 1947, which provides in part:

"Section 8. The County Court or board of commissioners of any county in this state may, by a vote of a majority of the members thereof, and shall, upon the filing with the county clerk of any such county of a petition therefor signed by not less than eight per cent of the legal voters of such county at the next general election held in such county the question of whether or not such 'County Historical Fund' shall be created and the amount of taxes to be annually levied therefor"

"The election laws, OCLA 81-1308, as amended by Section 11, Chapter 59, Oregon Laws 1945, require the county clerk to make up his ballot not more than 66 days and not less than 60 days before election day, and 'forthwith proceed and cause to be printed' such ballots.

"The general election will be held on Nov. 7, 1950. The clerk is required, therefore, to have his general ballot completed during the week just passed, and we have ascertained that he has so done.

"The request of this group has been made too late to get the issue before the legal voters at the general election. Ordinarily this difficulty could be obviated by calling a special election on November 7th, using the same officials and printing up a special ballot. However, you will note that the statute restricts the issue to a general election, so the county clerk would be without authority to act upon either a resolution by the county or a proper petition."

Legion Report Heard At Meeting

Reports of the recent state American Legion convention were given Tuesday at a meeting of the Coquille Auxiliary by Mrs. Ed Detlefsen, new state chairman of the child welfare commission, and Mrs. Ed Hughes, retiring district president.

President Mrs. Lyle Knox announced that Coquille auxiliary members had been invited to attend a special function arranged by the Powers unit for September 28. Members wishing to attend were asked to contact Mrs. Ed Hughes.

Program chairman Mrs. Matilda Engen introduced Miss JoAnn Newton, a junior member of the auxiliary who attended Girls' State during the summer. Miss Newton spoke interestingly of Girl State activities and sang pleasingly.

Mrs. Ed Hughes was named acting secretary until the secretary, Miss Irene Burr, is able to take over the office.

The next meeting of the group to be held October 17 will be "Dues Are Due" meeting.

OPPORTUNITY—Chance to show that Americans practice democracy as well as talking about it by voting in November.

Extension Training Draws Eighty-Two Women To All-Day Meeting Here

The annual training meeting of extension unit officers and publicity chairmen was held September 14 in the Coquille Labor Temple. Eighty-two women registered for the day's program, representing twenty-two units.

Certificates of achievement and a myrtlewood gavel were presented to all units. Bridge extension women won the traveling gavel for outstanding achievement. The award was based on the improvement of unit activity and their cooperation with 4-H club work.

Guest speakers were Miss Frances Clinton, state extension agent, and Mrs. Kenneth McCormack of Florence, a trustee for the Azalea House foundation. Miss Clinton outlined what makes a good unit meeting while Mrs. McCormack reviewed the Azalea House project to date.

The afternoon was devoted to leader training. Miss Clinton and Miss Ainley, home agent, led the chairmen and vice-chairmen. Secretaries and treasurers were instructed by the extension office secretary, Miss Ethel Lanway. Publicity chairmen received guidance in news writing from Mrs. John Nordhall and Mr. Harrison Hornish of the Coos Bay Times.

Organization meetings are being held this month throughout the county. Project work will begin with the October meetings. Everyone interested in homemaking is welcome.

A program and reception will be given in honor of Rev. A. L. Kunkel and family Monday evening, Sept. 25, at 8 p.m. The program will be followed by refreshments. The reception will be held in the fellowship room of the Baptist church, Coquille.

After 40 years in typographical work on the Pacific coast, P. R. Gaskill intends to settle down in the Coquille area and take life easy. Mr. Gaskill arrived from San Francisco last week, having retired after 30 years as a printer on the Call-Bulletin. With his wife he is visiting at the Denman Curry home near Powers while he looks around for a suitable location.
