William, Richardson, Myrtle

Hillis Barklow, Myrtle Point, was discharged Dec. 14.

It was a very hot day and the sergeant was having plenty of trouble with the awkward squad. At his wits' end, he called them to a halt and wiped his brow. "I'm darned if I know what to do with the pack of you," he growled. "There's some big shady trees over there, sergeant," said one of the recruits hopefully. "Yes, I know," said the non-com, "but I haven't any rope."
