Timber Brings High Prices

B. L. M. timber offered at oral bidding on June 12th was purchased at the appraisal price. $701,039.15 was the B.L.M. appraisal price for the 28,815M bd. ft. The Long Bell Lumber Company paid $76,851.00 for 3,490M bd. ft. The Coos Bay Lumber company purchased the other two tracts totaling 25,325 M bd. ft., and valued at $624,188.15.

The tract purchased by Long Bell is located in Douglas County North of Scottsburg. The tracts purchased by the Coos Bay Lumber Company are in Coos County near Sitkum, Oregon. One tract purchased by the Coos Bay Lumber Company is adjacent to the Coos Bay Wagon Road. As a condition of the sale the purchaser is required to make specified improvements to the Wagon road.

$29.15 per M bd. ft. was the highest appraisal of the three sales. These sales were made in accordance with the previously approved 1951 sales plan for the Coos Bay Forest District. District forester, Youngblood, conducted the sale.
