Decorations were arranged by Lois Stevens and Vera Hatcher.

Pouring during the refreshment hour were Mrs. W. E. Bosserman and Mrs. Hal Pierce, both of whom are past matrons of Beulah chapter.

Wesleyan Guild Holds Meeting

Discussion of the possibility of giving a smorgasbord in the near future was held last Thursday at the Wesleyan guild meeting. Members met in the evening in the Pioneer Methodist church parlors. Hostesses were Dorothy Rocarro, Dorothy Nickels and Carol Guderian.

During the business meeting, a report on proceeds from the guild food sale in December was heard. A social hour and refreshments followed the meeting.

Attending were Eunice Barrow, Margaret Snider, Marian Hales, Cora Mackey, Lundy Peart, Mabel McCullam, Viola Newton, Dora Oerding, Gerry Sorg, Linda Sorg, Helen Morgan, Marie Johnson, Clara Hultin, Dorothy Nickels, Carol Guderian, Lavina Peart, Ardis Sherwood and the hostesses.

WSCS To Assist Displaced Family

One o'clock dessert was served by Circle No. 1 to members of WSCS Thursday in the Pioneer Methodist church parlors. Mrs. Frances Fromm presented the program of the afternoon, "Because we have been so greatly blessed."

Mrs. Cleida Leonard was in charge of the devotional period. Four gifts were outlined for WSCS members: first, increased membership, second, well informed membership, third, volunteers for Christian service, and fourth, money gifts. Assisting in the program were Mrs. Helen Howe, Mrs. Helen Peterson and Mrs. Vera McCurdy.

The regular monthly business meeting followed, conducted by the president, Mrs. Helen Howe. Announcement was made of the study of the Book of Acts conducted by Rev. Lawrence Guderian which started Wednesday. It was decided to study the book, "We Americans North and South" on Tuesday night, February 19, and to invite the Wesleyan Guild members.

The committee on Christian Social Relations reported seven baskets were filled at Christmas. This committee will help outline plans for a family of three displaced persons who will arrive in Coquille through the generosity of Noble H. Chowning and others.

WSCS circles will meet January 17 with the following hostesses: No. 1 with Mrs. Frances Fromm 1 p.m.; No. 2 with Mrs. Jo Hancock, 1:30 p.m.; No. 3 with Mrs. Cleida Leonard, 1:30 p.m.

Members Meet With Mrs. Ruble

Members of the Zuleima Coquille Valley Nile club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Julius Ruble. Lovely blue Christmas iris were used by the hostess for decorating the rooms.

Acting as hostesses with Mrs. Ruble were Mrs. T. S. Stevens, Mrs. Fred Logsdon, Mrs. Walter Enlund and Mrs. Fred True.

396 Club Works On Year Books

New officers who will serve during 1952 conducted the meeting of the 396 club of Coquille grange last Friday at the home of Mrs. J. V. Sims in Coos Bay.

The new officers are Myrtle Benham, president, Katie Anderson, vice-president, Grace McBeth, secretary, Pearl Ruble, treasurer. Year end business was transacted at the meeting and members worked on year books. A potluck dinner was served.

Vote Scheduled At Grange Meeting

All members of Coquille Grange are urged to attend Friday's meeting at 8 p.m. in the community building junior auditorium. An important issue will be discussed and a vote must be taken at the meeting, according to officers.

The ceremony of presentation of seed corn for the new year to the new master, Glen Griffith, will be held. Also scheduled is the New Year candle lighting service.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hardenbrook are visiting relatives and friends in California. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

Installation Held By Relief Corps

Installation of officers was held by Coquille Women's Relief Corps January 2 at the Labor Temple. This year the Women's Relief Corps will be led by Mrs. Tom Drake, Sr., who will be assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Peterson as senior vice-president and Mrs. George DeNoma in the junior vice-president's office.

Chaplain-elect is Mrs. Jane Collier. Last year's president, Mrs. Orville Livermore, will act as conductor, assisted by Mrs. George Terrio. Treasurer-elect is Mrs. John McNair who has held this office for the past five years. Mrs. William Roth will be patriotic instructor and Mrs. Norman Meek will assist Mrs. Drake as her secretary.

The Coquille Corps acted as installing officers for the North Bend Corps on January 3. Mrs. Eula McIntee was honored by being selected as installing officer and was presented with a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Fred Von Pegert, recently transferred to North Bend from Coquille, was installing conductor and received a lovely necklace for her work. Other Coquille members assisting were Mrs. William Roth, Mrs. Dorothy Livermore, Mrs. George Terrio and Mrs. Tom Drake, Sr.
