

Social Events...

Clubs, Lodge and Local Activities

PHONE 3581
or 3591
LOIS MCGOURTY
Woman's Editor

Club Has Meeting At Myrtle Point

There were thirty-seven members present when the Coquille Valley Nile club met at the home of Mrs. James Kilgore in Myrtle Point last week.

Hostesses were Mesdames Will Lundy, James Kilgore, James Brown, John Belloni and Rose Shilling. Red flowering quince was used in decoration for the meeting.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Hal Pierce next month.

Legion Postpones Birthday Dinner

The American Legion birthday potluck dinner has been postponed and will be held March 24 in the community building. The American Legion Auxiliary will hold its regular in the community building on March 18.

Sentinel

COQUILLE, OREGON.

MARCH 13, 1952.

Visiting relatives in Seattle have been Mr. and Mrs. Cal Teuscher and family. They left for the northern city last week.

Cub Pack 314 will not meet March 19th as scheduled. They will meet March 26, according to Everett Robbins, leader.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNNY CLARK
(Maxine Parrish)

(Coquille Studio)

Baptist Women Hear Of Burma

BANDON (Special) — Women's Missionary circle of the Baptist church met at the parsonage last Thursday afternoon. The program consisted of a report on Baptist mission work in Burma, with Mrs. Eval Stewart describing activities of the missionaries and exhibiting souvenirs of that country brought back by her son who flew the Hump during World War II.

Mrs. Stewart was costumed as a native Burmese woman. She exhibited native textiles, carved teakwood and handwork of many kinds.

Luncheon was served, with Mrs. John Magoon and Mrs. Stewart as hostesses. Among those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. E. B. Fish, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Esther Sparlin, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Edgar Brown, Mrs. Patricia Staten and Mrs. Magoon.

OLD FASHIONED GOSPEL GIVEN AT CHURCH

The Rev. C. T. Dwiggins of Roseville, Calif. is presenting the old-fashioned Gospel each evening at 7:30 p. m. at Church of God, Friday night, he will relate his life story under the title, "From the Gutter to the Pulpit." Special subjects are planned for each evening of the series to which the public is invited.

Student Exchange Topic For Grange

Stanley Parsons, county 4-H agent, will talk on student exchange with foreign countries before Coquille Grange members Friday night in the community building. In keeping with the program, girls will model dresses typical of foreign countries. The grange meeting starts at 8 p. m.

Classes to Continue In Literature

Keith Goldhammer, superintendent of Bandon schools, will continue his literature classes held under auspices of the state extension service at Coquille high school with World Literature class starting Thursday, March 26.

After the first meeting, the class will be held Wednesdays. Although the class is a follow-up of the two terms taught previously by Goldhammer, new students may enroll. Listed as English 109, it is a three-hour course.

Surprise Shower Honors Bride-Elect

A surprise bridal shower honoring Miss Mary Ella Byers was given by Miss Aladene Crume and Miss Irene Quivey at the Quivey home Friday evening. Games were played and refreshments served to the honored guest, Mary Mrs. Lillian Quivey, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Joe Steele, Dorothy Miller, Shirley Perrin, Anna and Barbara Quivey, Pat Harsh and Joan Benham.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Donna Miller, Joan King and Velma Miller.

Navy Man Takes Bandon Brides

BANDON (Special) — A high school romance culminated in marriage for Miss Myrtle Woosley of Bullards and Mr. Donald Pike of Bandon at four o'clock March 6 at the Baptist church in Coquille, with the Rev. A. L. Kunkel officiating at the single ring rites.

The bride was attired in a pink silk afternoon dress, with which she wore a corsage of white roses and pink carnations.

Attendants for the young couple were Miss Joyce Pike, sister of the groom, and Renzol Stearns of Bandon.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for Bremerton, Wash., where the groom is serving with the U. S. navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Foss, Nana and Stephen, returned Friday from a week in San Francisco. While there, they visited museums, zoos, and the Sport, Travel and Boat show.

OUR FACE IS RED!

In last week's Sentinel, a mistake was made in a story concerning the wedding of Maxine Parrish and Johnny Clark. Our apologies to Mr. Clark and his attractive bride. Pictured on this page are the bride and groom on the steps of Emmanuel Baptist church where they were married February 10.

Auxiliary Calls District Meet

American Legion Auxiliary units in District 10 of the department of Oregon will meet Tuesday in Roseburg for a district conference.

Mrs. B. B. Stratten, Port Orford, district president, will preside over the meeting. Department officials and chairmen from district 10 will attend to present the Auxiliary program to members. Mrs. W. E. Wilkins, La Grande, department president, will lead the "school of instruction" on the official visit, assisted by Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, Portland, department secretary, and Mrs. Robert S. Kreason, Dallas, vice-president and department membership.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hughes will attend the meeting from Coquille.

S. O. S. Members Attend Shower

Mrs. Lee Waterman was honored recently when members of the S. O. S. gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Keck for a stork shower. Many lovely gifts were received and opened at the shower. Later, refreshments were served to the guests.

IT'S NEW ... IT'S FREE ...

Barrow Drug invites you to a FREE demonstration of the NEW

Gay Tape Recorder

at their display booth Friday night, Community Building, March 14

See the latest in Bell and Howell, Revere, and other photographic equipment and supplies.

Treasure Day Special ...

See the Viewmaster
and Reels of color pictures
on special this Saturday

Barrow Drug

Largest Photographic Supply Dealer
in Southwestern Oregon

We give S & H Green Stamps

STYLE-MART SUITS FOR SPRING

Styled ...From a Man's Point of View!
* FINE FABRICS * SMOOTH FIT * FAULTLESS TAILORING!

Now, you can be smartly turned-out in the Easter parade and months to follow... at wallet-trimmed prices! Every suit is picked for its fine tailoring, fit and fabric. Choose your from our wide collection, today.

$39.95 to $60

Use Our Convenient Payment
Layaway Plan

Herman's
FEATURE FAMOUS
BRAND NAMES

- STETSON hats
- ADAM hats
- WEYENBERG shoes
- FREEMAN shoes
- ARROW shirts & ties
- VAN HEUSEN shirts
- INTERWOVEN socks
- COOPER'S underwear
- DAY'S San Juan slacks
- LORD JEFF sweaters
- CALIFORNIA sportswear

Welcome to Coquille, March 14, 15
SPRING OPENING
Country Fair, Style Show, Treasure Day

Herman's
"THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR QUALITY"
NORTH BEND COQUILLE COOS BAY