Daughters Of The Nile Honor Queen At Meeting Held In Myrtle Point

Honoring Queen Marcial Stansbury, Queen of Zulema Temple No. 13 of the Daughters of the Nile, a meeting was held in Myrtle Point last Wednesday. It was the regular meeting for the Coquille Valley club and it was the official visit of the Queen.

A no-host dinner in honor of the Queen and members of the social club of Mystic chapter of Myrtle Point was served.

The tables were beautifully decorated in a fall motif.

Other officers from the Temple in Ashland were present. Gifts for the Thanksgiving boxes for the children at the Shrine hospital were brought and packed for mailing to the hospital. The serving made for the crippled children was also turned in and sent to the hospital.

Sixty-seven members were present. The next meeting will be held at the Hotel Coquille, according to Mrs. Julius Ruble.

MRS. TRUE IMPROVED

Mrs. Fred True is up and about on crutches, reports her husband, although she is still at McAuley hospital in Coos Bay. She expects to return to her home in Coquille within the next 10 days. Mrs. True broke her hip Oct. 25 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Little, while she was assisting in moving household goods.

Toastmistress' Bid Council Number 12 Welcome Sunday

Council 12 of the Northwest Region of International Toastmistress organization met in the Cedar room of the Coquille hotel Sunday afternoon with members from Reedsport, Coquille, Coos Bay and Florence attending.

The program was opened by Mrs. Elinor Gremagard, who gave the invocation. The welcome to the meeting was given by Mrs. Bernice Melhus, president of the Coquille group. Table anecdotes under the direction of Mrs. Core Mackey of Coquille livened up the program during the dinner hour, when roast turkey was served.

The toastmistress for the dinner was Mrs. Genevieve Perrin, and two talks, "Declaration of Independence" and "What Price Honesty," were given by Mrs. Jeanne Ley and Mrs. Maxine Kistner, respectively.

Another talk, "Lexicology" was given by Lillian Butler. A "sniping session," or general evaluation of the talks that were given, was opened to the meeting.

The regular business meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Isabel McHenry of Florence, replacing Mrs. Cornelia Moore who was unable to attend the meeting. Mrs. McHenry serves as secretary of the council.
